

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Saturday, September 7, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

Senate bill puts tight limits on all lawsuits

West Nile not stopping life-saving measures

ACLU urges court to speed inmate suit

No prisons bill, lawmakers say

Water, sewer upgrade possible

'No Child Left Behind' sparks workshops

Editorials

Special session: Consensus emerging on tort reform

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Madison County selling used cars?

Protect selves, family if using Internet

Reward healthy health practices

Check out the flag at Mt. Rushmore!

Agnew good pick as top 'C-L' editor

Rolling bookbags can protect backs

The Sun Herald Biloxi

Senate votes for caps on punitive awards, as well

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

Senate nixes governor's special session call

EDITORIAL: Legislature needs the middle ground

The Forum

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN

Senate legislation would cap jury awards at $250,000

Hattiesburg American

Senate votes for \$250,000 suit cap

Leaders fight for control over prisons

Rohrlack scolds U.S. Chamber

Meridian Star

Lawmakers talk torts at capitol

Laurel Leader-Call

JCJC to receive USDA Rural Development funds

House OKs medical civil justice bill

DeSoto Times Today Hernando

Senate OKs $250,000 cap on civil lawsuits

The Clarksdale Press Register

Legal barrier to Ayers pact hurts everyone

The Bolivar Commercial Cleveland

Inmates send letters telling how they look forward to new facility

Blackwood says House watered down tort reform

RAISES: Our Rip Van Winkle Congress

Enterprise Journal McComb

Barksdale, officials discuss illiteracy

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Legislature won't act on prison bill in special session

Senate to debate medical malpractice lawsuit issues

today

The Natchez Democrat

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Stateline.org

The New York Times

Across New York and the Nation, Many Ways to Reflect on 9/11

The Washington Post

Miss. Lawmakers Set Limits on Medical Lawsuits

The Washington Times