

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Tuesday, September 3, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

Ayers lawyer loses job, blames Miss.

Editorials

Tort reform: Limiting joint and several liability

'Rock' rumble: USM, JSU matchup good for both

Baseball: Owners, players still damage game

Prisons, reform in a three-ring circus

Judicial nullification could pose threat to tort reform

Prison, virus funds votes linked

Trade policies, jobs find way into Miss. race

Slow job growth worries some

Editorials

Tort reform: Business considerations differ

Governor 'taxing' us with subsidies

We must protect our nursing home patients, their families

Tuck 'pandering' over U.S. Pledge

Musgrove is playing political hardball in special session

Ga. death fuels new West Nile concerns

Schools retool their missions

Delta job training in works

Editorials

Tort reform: 'Nullification' shouldn't divert action

Labor Day: True American festive holiday

But . . . : 9/11 should quietly be observed

MACM: 'The 800-lb. gorilla'

Ruling set for today on veto of prison bill

Outlook mixed as Miss. legislators begin budgeting

Strong summer tourism numbers on Miss. coast raise hopes for fall

Gambling industry gave Miss. big boost in hotel jobs

Editorials

Tort reform: Governor offers an alternative

Tort reform: It could be called 'MACM-Plus-Plus'

Tort reform: Proposals must have basic points

Legislature must aid 'giving' doctors

Medical profession has accountability

Tort reform won't affect premiums

Let lawyers move; keep the doctors

Civil justice system is working well now

Mississippi must adopt tort reform

'Tort reform' would harm nursing home residents in state

The Sun Herald Biloxi

Legislators blast Musgrove's tort-reform 'game'

Lawmaker: Musgrove aide offered vote deal

Success of special session rests solely with Musgrove

Ronnie Musgrove: Governor - or godfather?

Building success

Lawmakers have mixed budget views

State's casino history starts with Isle

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

The state already meets most requirements set by No Child Left Behind Grant funds earmarked for community improvements
Governor's special session causes concern
Judge rules Musgrove's prison veto unconstitutional

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN

Musgrove aide links vote flip to virus fund, Espy says
Who's right on malpractice?
Budget writers again pin hope on Mississippi tax take
Mass tort hornet's nest spreads its stings
Three-pronged special session opens Thursday

Hattiesburg American

Towns prepare to use grant money
Legislature to consider key issues
Tort reform is a 'state' issue
Lawmakers must protect victims

Meridian Star

- Burton: Lawmakers should settle civil justice reform
- Musgrove's power play — Cassreino

Laurel Leader-Call

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

Espy alleges gubernatorial arm-twisting
Grant money pours into small Delta Communities

The Bolivar Commercial Cleveland

Enterprise Journal McComb

Official: We need FEMA funds

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Warden's departure not a surprise
Espy: Governor's staff was heavy-handed on private prison vote

The Natchez Democrat

Whipple named Democrat editor; Hall publisher in Houston, Calhoun City
Musgrove's actions lack true nobility

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

MTLA David Baria: Don't forget victims in so-called tort reform

DJOURNAL: Malpractice momentum

TIMESofSoMS ED: The time has come for legislative revolt

Lobbying continues

The New York Times

National Briefing: South

In Delta's Mosquito War, Weapons Include Spray, Garlic and Bananas

The Washington Post

The Washington Times