

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, August 5, 2002

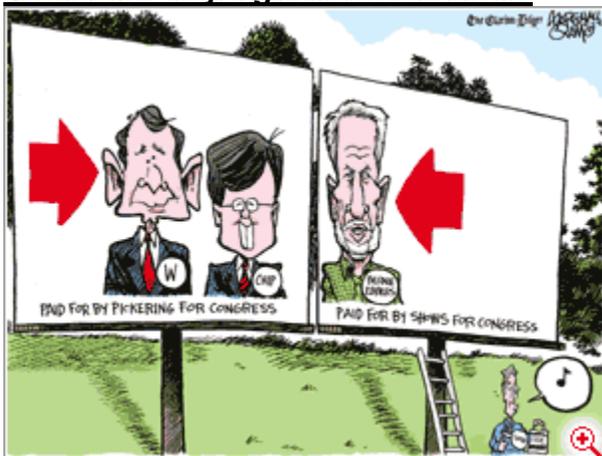

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

He's no average number cruncher

Yep! It's back-to-school time

Bush's visit still 'very classified'

Officials: Let judge return to bench

Tort reform now a personal matter

Legislature must protect residents

22 infected with West Nile

Landowners OK parkway plan

The Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Bracing for Bertha's rains

Musgrove, prison can compromise, says AG

In the heat of the moment, we may need to chill out

'Under God,' pro-life speeches win at fair

Don't ignore symptoms, experts warn

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

No W. Nile deaths in Miss., but cases mount

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

WorldCom's woes deepen with arrests

Laurel Leader-Call

Aerospace center, Navy facilities set to open at Stennis

State funding for Howard expansion a bargain

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

Test scores a mixed bag

Pickering-Shows race shaping up as a dandy

The Bolivar Commercial

Enterprise Journal McComb

Shows-Pickering race a House decider

Justice Department OKs election bill

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Lawsuit against state 'the only option,' Delta Correctional chairman says

U.S. House contest should be lively one

The Natchez Democrat

West Nile epidemic needs quicker actionMississippi Business Journal

Mississippi business reacts to bankruptcy filing

Magnolia Report

The New York Times

The Washington Post

Fair Fight in Mississippi \(

WorldCom Gives Up Mobile Customers

The Washington Times