

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, August 19, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

$7.8M sought to fight virus

Jordan named deputy ed chief

Homeland Security Web site launched

2 seeking ouster of Sidgmore

Warning: Back tort reform or lose votes

Everybody playing the blame game: It's them, not us!

Mosquito may be man's fiercest foe

Medicaid cutbacks exhausted

Teachers attend high-tech symposium

Editorials

Tort reform: Legislature faces difficult choice

Magnolia Inc.: Venture capital, jobs remain issues

Trust juries, not tort reform ideas

Retirees closely watch tort reform

Without reform, 'big business' infecting medical practices

Caps are necessary to protect physicians

Road to inclusion still long

Public called key to tort reform

Editorials

Tort reform: Panel must give recommendation

Housing: It's time to demolish White Rock

City budget: Windfall demands accountability

Legislation needed on 'jackpot justice'

Cap on damages is unfair to citizens

Punitive damages issue complicated

Why not put a cap on attorney fees?

Lawyers lobby against tort reform

'Reformer' focus only on few verdicts

Probably federal tort reform will eventually be necessary

The Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

West Nile hits in Harrison County

About Face to help youths turn their lives around

State lawmakers given more time for tort talks

Corrections department losing blunt-spoken director

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Timely reform: Civil justice issues need legislative resolution

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Editorial 8/18: Mississippi tests case for tort reform

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg

Camp Shelby to hold security training

Congress must fulfill promise to special ed

Laurel Leader-Call

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register
Clarksdale physician calls for tort reform
Agency's tall task: Rescue a region

The Bolivar Commercial

Enterprise Journal McComb
Editorial for Monday, Aug. 19, 2002

The Greenwood Commonwealth
Ag aviators adapt to post-Sept. 11 world
West Nile not slowing state's outdoor tourism
Jail alternative can't be ignored
An alternative to damage caps

The Natchez Democrat
Same ol', same ol' under Capitol dome

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report
MSGOP Chairman on Pickering, Barbour, Mississippi politics
Terry Cassreino: Sales tax on the horizon?
MERIDIAN ED: Time to put up on tort reform
Danny McKenzie: Truth lies hidden somewhere in civil justice reform rhetoric
HUB ED: Lawmakers must approve caps, venue
Musgrove says immediate help needed for civil justice
Musgrove awaits list of ideas for reform

The New York Times
Five Officers Are Wounded by a Gunman in Mississippi
National Briefing: South
'War Zone' in Miss. After Cops Shot
Bush Considers New Measures in a Bid to Boost the Economy

The Washington Post

The Washington Times

