

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Tuesday, June 4, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

'I'm worried ... a child's going to die'

Wrongly convicted find doing time doesn't pay much

Shrimpers wait for nod to start

Study: Head Start Program Aids Kids

Editorials

Education: There are no cheap shortcuts

Redistricting: Justice Department turns speedy

GUEST COLUMNIST

D. Kyle Ball: 'Good vs. evil' tort debate needs solution

Musgrove not biggest embarrassment

Lack of tort reform will further limit access to health care

MESC moving to new digs, period

Tuition hike too low, JSU, USM say

Lott still keen on 'corridor' concept

Gov. Ronnie Musgrove: Stopping methamphetamines state's newest drug war

Bill Minor: Private prisons feast on state's tax dollars while agencies starve

Malpractice cases should be filtered

Change crucial to keeping doctors

Anonymous 'tort reform' survey dangerous, disingenuous

Wicker Column: Film crews, Hollywood stars not strange sight in state

Are kids safe? Overworked social workers don't know ...

3 accused in fraud costing Medicaid at least $100,000

Federal prison going to Ga.

Gowan picked to succeed DeLaughter

Internet porn law blocked by court

Wireless wonders honored

Top students picking out-of-state colleges

DHS to add case workers

HMA going forward with hospital plans

Greed motivating tort reform effort

Musgrove is not on top of things

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Klan is a fixture of Mississippi history

New aid for DHS helps now, but later?

Adoption day seeks 'open hearts, open homes'

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Moore vows to intervene in DHS

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Letters to the Editor

Education program not meeting goals

Letters to the editor

Federal Reserve officials visit Tupelo

Letters to the Editor

State's May tax collections down

Moore says lack of money no excuse for some DHS problems

BOBBY HARRISON: Adequate Education looks over its shoulder

CHARLIE MITCHELL: Tort reform's the first lie among many

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Inmate's lawyer wants change in DNA test rules
Voters prepare for primaries in new 2nd District

River captain in disaster had training, experience

Aid helps NW keep serving Hattiesburg

Moore says lack of money no excuse for some DHS problems

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Companies cut jobs as business climate changes

Most area high schools beating state's dropout average

Alternative education helps combat dropout rates

States must coordinate their plans

State needs 'good business climate'

Urge officials to solve tort issue

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

• Shows-Pickering race poised to turn nasty — Cassreino

• Desperate politics?

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

State continues to study Adams GAP status

Davis should have made decision public sooner

Tuck will talk tort reform today in Natchez

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Editorial: School district must wrestle with white flight

Editorials for Monday, June 3, 2002

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

Advisory panel: no Mississippi funds for Med

His multipoint plan for tort reform

Were north Deltans duped by Legislature?

The Bolivar Commercial

The Times of South MS

TIMESofSoMS ED: It's time for aggressive South Mississippi politics

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Leflore Drug Court marks 1st success

The Med deserves cut of trauma fund

The Delta Democrat Times

Gov. Musgrove sees a new day for Mississippi

Mississippi Business Journal

Delta Business Journal

Delta native named to head Delta Council Industrial Department www.deltabusinessjournal.com

Magnolia Report

Capitol grudge match: Lott vs Daschle

STARKVILLE ED: Common sense needed regarding medical suits

STARKVILLE ED: Lack of progress on tort reform disturbing

MSPRESS ED: Tort reform takes on local importance to Ocean Springs

The New York Times

The Washington Post

The Washington Times

USA Today

Mississippi