

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, June 10, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Editorials

Medicaid suits: Rulings could expedite litigation

Road rage: Incident points up danger, futility

War forum: Cancellation of event shortsighted

Paul Ott should be next governor

College leaders' pay on agenda

Courts can put price on enjoyment of life, Miss. justices rule

Money not only issue facing DHS

Thousands attend 23rd annual picnic

Miss. author takes look inside Nissan

No casino, Choctaw chief insists

Renick: Car tag claim bogus

Bill has TVA facing loss of monopoly

Fierce race churns on

Catfish industry correcting its woes

Legislature's blame game arrogant

Reform would help insurance industry

Minor has obvious bias in commenting on 'tort reform'

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

State near bottom in spending on students

Book looks at Nissan boss

Mississippians invade NYC for down-home fun

Mississippi's children are the victims of politics

Will you allow the Department of Justice to tolerate the Legislature's injustice?The current state Senate districts in South Mississippi

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Mississippi not only state dealing with budget woes

Supreme Court's ruling against Big Black gambling good for state

LLOYD GRAY: Simplify our cumbersome election process

DANNY McKENZIE: Holland's latest undertaker tale saddest of all

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Catfish is crowning touch for lonesome in NYC

State takes over Elvis Presley Lake

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Insurer: Tort reform no quick cure

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Insider briefing on BRAC

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi
Tuck's tort talk points to the courts

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register
Med cause is worth fighting for

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth
Displaced Mississippians gather in Central Park
Moore: Serious discussions needed on tort reform
Kids suffer from shortsighted politics

Mississippi Business Journal
Need for tort reform in state driven home

Magnolia Report

The New York Times

The Washington Post

The Washington Times