

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, June 17, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Drug busts on highways up

Transportation driving activist these days

Grant to support arts ed at school

Editorials

Cops, courts, DHS ... Ashley dies anyway

DHS accuracy earns $4.7M

Sidgmore's pep talk did little to rally WorldCom shareholders

Rocket company to locate in Miss.

Editorials

DHS messed up with paper's help

Flag isn't hurting state's economy

Don't be fooled by Ronnie Shows

Nissan plans to expand

WorldCom's headquarters not moving

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

No bail for ranger accused of starting wildfire

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

New crime lab opens today

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Medicaid plans to promote generic option

Gov. Musgrove says Mississippi needs to invest in education

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Public needs information on session

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Lawmakers and tort reform — Cassreino

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Former GOP chair

visiting Natchez today

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Stateline.org

State Lawmakers Opting Out of 2002 Races

The Clarksdale Press Register

Crop conditions improve as most cotton is planted

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth
State's legal climate worries doctors

Mississippi Business Journal

Musgrove: Mississippi needs stable business environment

Magnolia Report

Musgrove does rush job on Nissan

The New York Times

The Washington Post

The Washington Times