

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, July 1, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

WorldCom gets warning

Political parties 'soft' on spending

Get government out of health care

It's government of, by and for Big Business, the wealthy

WorldCom lays off 90 at Miss. headquarters

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Marine resources panel shrinking from 7 to 5

Rattled

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

USM president appointed to economic development task force

Changes come Monday for Mississippi marine agency

Editorial 6/30: Rolling the dice in central Mississippi

I-69 would be lifblood to Delta, chairman says

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

State House members eye top job— Cassreino

News Columns

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

DRA hammers home idea of regional highway system

House of Representatives needs new leadership

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Sid Salter: WorldCom invested in political influence

GWCOM ED: Shows won't miss WorldCom money

Reuters: WorldCom Ex-CEO still favorite in Mississippi

Political groups release report on state level soft money spending

Governor Ronnie Musgrove: Nissan finds 'dynamic business climate' in

Mississippi

The New York Times

WorldCom Will Widen Inquiry Into Accounting

The Washington Post
WorldCom Woes May Worsen

The Washington Times