

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Wednesday, June 12, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Miss. pollution rose in 2000

Medicaid eyeing generic drugs

Candidate: U.S. Chamber should butt out

Gov. speaks to Boys State

State's 1st female lt. gov. getting due

Public invited to meet with gov.

Foreign markets touted by MDA

Editorials

New chief: Gets warm welcome, but big test

Job training: New report urgent, same as before

The Blues: Mississippi product gets no respect

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Musgrove touts Mississippi's progress despite problems

Picayune hails Chevron

Medicaid plans to promote generic option

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Tupelo attorneys file suit against bin Laden, al-Qaeda

Teaching Teachers Summer workshops abound for educators

$653K ARC grant funds classroom technology

Gulfport lawyer says he would bring fairness to Supreme Court

Mississippians must cancel weight of negative mind-set

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

TennCare's chief quits with plan in jeopardy

Gov. Musgrove says Mississippi needs to invest in education

Medicaid considering incentive for choosing generic drugs

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Ex-Lt. governor honored with 'lasting tribute'

Medicaid may offer incentive

Coast candidate hopes to rehonour judge's post

Report puts emphasis on education

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Providers worried about Medicaid cuts

Census: School spending up, still behind

Editorials for Wednesday, June 12, 2002

Bill Minor: Democratic Legislature fails to protect Shows

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Medicaid generic drug incentive considered
State's per-student spending still lags
Supreme Court again shows pro-plaintiff bias

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Rich Campbell: tort committee must deal with facts

The New York Times

The Washington Post

The Washington Times