

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Wednesday, June 19, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

1,000 more jobs on line

Execution sought for cop killer

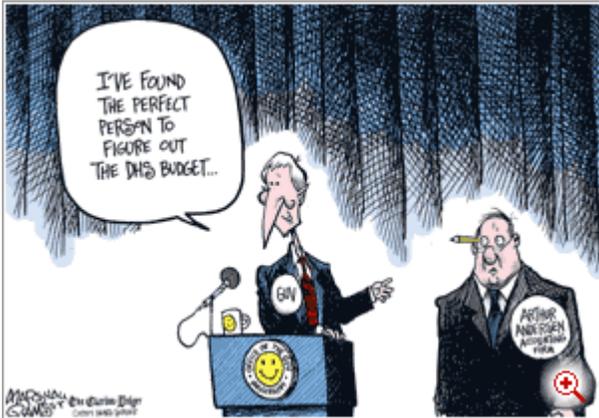

Panel targets Medicaid fraud

Socialization of justices, trial lawyers criticized

Blood donors up, still needed

Base closures called inevitable

Worker retention meet focus

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Environmental permit extended for proposed coast casino

Few applying for Harrison County social worker jobs

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Musgrove: New Nissan package a good deal for state

Susan Adler Thorp: Road to Senate is in right lane, Bryant says

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Polymer science program gets $1.8M donation

Task force to vote on raising tuition

AMA report shows scope of problem

State should cap punitive damages

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

State should cap punitive damages

- Kemper jobs

- Gas up truck

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi
Physicians want tort meeting in Natchez

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi
Justice approves state's redistricting plan

Stateline.org
Mississippi: 1,000 More Jobs On Line
Mississippi: Panel Targets Medicaid Fraud

The Clarksdale Press Register
Legislative weekend will proceed as planned

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth
AMA report: Mississippi has medical liability crisis
Justice Dept. OKs new districts
Name-brand drugs among Medicaid's top expenses
Musgrove calls Nissan package a good deal
Medicaid recipients must show more ID
Lawyers want apology from U.S. chamber
AMA diagnoses malpractice crisis
Legislative districts are no piece of art
Musgrove does rush job on Nissan

Mississippi Business Journal
Mississippi Beef Processors to build facility

Magnolia Report
Sid Salter: Going rate for a Mississippi vote: $8.29

The New York Times
Millions of Children in Poverty in Rural America

The Washington Post

The Washington Times