

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Tuesday, April 22, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Musgrove: Medicaid solution 'within reach'

Judge to face assault charge

Judicial change up for review

Helping sustain the future

'War' rolls through Camp Shelby

Editorials

Medicaid: Deal with the funding issue

Teachers: Shortage requires innovation

State flag: Confederate symbols will fade

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

State's cellular problem persists

An exercise in spending

Simpson: Medicaid in state a shambles

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Musgrove reports progress on Medicaid

BOBBY HARRISON: Expanded Medicaid = expanded accountability

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Tuck: No nursing home evictions, no need for Medicaid session

Outdated cell phone plans costly

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Medicaid cuts could 'devastate' nursing homes

How did we get into this predicament?

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Greenwood doctor stresses need for tort reform

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi
Schools focused on state testing
Read Our View

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register
Credit business leaders for lack of flag fallout

The Bolivar Commercial
MEDICAID: State officials deal a bad hand

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi
License plates are getting too political

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report
Lawmakers consider Musgrove Medicaid offer
Musgrove and legislators negotiate on Medicaid

The New York Times

The Washington Post