

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, April 15, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Musgrove: Special session on Medicaid

'My son is going to die without this stuff'

Governor can't exercise partial veto on budget bills, AG rules

State engineers to get pay hike

Summit to show power of faith-based programs

Welfare recipients working on future

New law loosens judicial elections

Land eyed for I-55 interchange

Editorials

Medicaid: Senate refuses to solve problem

New 'Jam': Signature sponsorship is healthy

Queen Mum: Her royal walk was a humble one

Lawmakers glad session over

Nissan project on schedule

Gun owners group takes aim at Lott

Board mulls boot camp' for teachers

Jobs for Mississippi Graduates program praised

Editorials

Prosperity? State must consolidate job training

Mideast: Bush's axis of evil' getting twisted

Federal waste: Credit card use a growing scandal

Will the Legislature pick my medicine?

Tort administration crying for fairness

Thanks to all for sharing our loss

Mississippians don't need legislation that encourages theft

There are no easy answers to problems facing the Medicaid budget

Residents fear being kicked out

'We're worse off than we've ever been'

State leaders pointing fingers

Permit fees elude DEQ

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Session may be called on Medicaid

Was the governor conducting a campaign of fear - or just sharing fearful facts?

Partial vetoes invalid, AG's office says

Andy Taylor or Barney Fife? Musgrove's a crafty leader

Musgrove signs bills on judicial election, road work

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

House effort to save Medicaid falls short

Leadership failure: Legislature adjourns without a viable Medicaid solution

House effort to save Medicaid falls short

Mississippi needs a skilled 'benevolent dictator'

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Governor's office researching opinion on partial vetoes

Mississippi lawmakers end session with Medicaid unresolved

Uncertainty, problems remain for Medicaid as Mississippi lawmakers go home

Medicaid fix stumbles after veto override

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

• Rohrlack: Meridian on right track

• Keeping up with Bob — Bynum

• You can't help liking the guy — Monk

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Special session agenda time to show leadership

Republicans missed opportunity with veto override vote

Mississippi must blame itself for physician flight

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Tim Kalich: Medicaid arguments confusing

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

State flag issue died with vote, some say

Legislators proud of session's successes

Another strike against Osborne

Leadership lacking on tort reform

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Medicaid veto override easily passes

FEAR: Musgrove says Medicaid puts 1500 in Hattiesburg area at risk

Leflore County Court Judge Solomon Osborne has another federal tax lien

No outrage, no boycotts, no big deal still over Mississippi's flag

The New York Times

The Washington Post