

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Tuesday, May 7, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

U.S. Chamber targeting Miss.

CDC could be next move for health officer

3 up for health officer post

Capitol abstinence rally asks teens to 'Just Wait'

Will hub stay or go?

Nissan cargo arrives at port

$8.1M spent by special interests

GOP heavyweights eyeing Lott's title

Growth disappears; party over

Report: State's 30% rise in exports led nation 1st half of '01

Editorials

Medicaid: State officials are on the right path

Judiciary: Elections form a bubbling cauldron

Veteran lawmaker is the real McCoy

Is policy shaped by donations?

Medicaid, tort reform draw donors \(PDF\)

Report reveals hospital trouble

Crisis line to help Hispanics in Miss.

Editorials

Budget: State squeaks by to start again

Openness: Madison board should meet later

Judicial races: Voters must pay closer attention

Musgrove spent too much time talking to wrong person

Census shows income, education growth in Mississippi

Mississippi students put to the test

Miss. on medical alert list

Summer tort reform hearings planned

Musgrove, Tuck use state jets in Medicaid tours

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Musgrove goes to bat for reading

Musgrove pledges to bolster child protection

Medicaid messages fly around

Governor leads rally against teen pregnancy

She sees a hug in her future

State exports rose 30 percent in 2001

Mississippi legislative committee to study tort reform

Percentage of Mississippians in poverty drops in 1990s

Mississippi's new highway program needs time

How will chamber make Mississippi more like

Delaware?

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Lott not happy with farm bill

Musgrove may warn agencies of cuts during next fiscal year

Tupelo surgeon, tort reform share Forbes cover

Ford, Tuck consider forming tort reform committee

Vision 21 something by everyone, but can it deliver?

Chamber vendetta? Singling out Mississippi won't help reform effort

Lott outlines Mississippi's healthy 'pork'

BOBBY HARRISON: Moore remains stoic about political intent

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Hold on kids, 'Just Wait' for sex

Mississippi legislative committee to study tort reform

Avoid Miss., national Chamber to say

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

U.S. Chamber puts focus on tort reform

State government evokes 'wonder'

Hospice patients deserve coverage

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

**Carmichael switches to Republican Party**

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Read Our View

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Editorials for Tuesday, May 7, 2002

Charlie Mitchell: Medicaid answers in Wisconsin?

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

Health-care outlook is gloomy

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Tuck, Ford consider forming joint committee on tort

reform

Shortage of nurses expected to last

Musgrove, Tuck used state planes to talk up Medicaid

plans

U.S. Chamber to warn companies about Mississippi

State's exports up 30 percent in 2001

Tupelo surgeon, tort reform share Forbes cover

Tuck, Ford getting tort-reform message

So what if not alone

Suggestion for doctors: Run for office

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

The New York Times

The Washington Post