

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Wednesday, May 29, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

State prison meets ACA standards

State's jobless rate shows decline

Editorials

Plea bargain: Judge's odyssey a colossal waste

Tort reform: Comprehensive approach needed

Tougaloo: Hogan a solid choice as president

GOP faces uphill fight in district

Democrats offered choice

Evers case opened doors

Camp Shelby welcomes first of expected 15,000 troops

Tobacco plaintiffs' lawyers unite

Miss., other states lose suit in Frankel insurance battle

South Dakota seeks to catch Mississippi on teacher pay

Day spent remembering fallen

Charlie Mitchell: Legislature's tort reform is on the books

Editorials

Tort reform: Interests should tone down rhetoric

Health care: Thousands die for lack of insurance

Arts education: Arts programs help academics

Legislative panel all about accuracy

Nissan supplier to locate in Tupelo

Raytheon Aerospace plans IPO

Check cashing license yanked

Numbers good, but growth slowing

Republicans in 2nd District tilt weak on issues

Nissan supplier to locate in Tupelo

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Staffing problem burdens workers

State awarded anti-bioterrorism funds

Insurer drops 4 O.S. doctors

Hopes ride on Nissan

State now owns Deer Island

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Speaker asks committee to look at host of civil justice issues

Committee members say they can craft compromise

WATT EMMERICH: Will top leaders fiddle as Mississippi burns?

Speculations abound on Musgrove's proposal to curb malpractice

BOBBY HARRISON: Attorneys in Legislature reflect the spectrum

Area lands Nissan jobs

Airports to provide own security; Guardsmen going home

Envirothon Team honored at Capitol by governor

Pragmatism drives reform

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.
Memphis, Tunica see big-event partnership

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi
State taps board's operation funds

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi
Pickering: Mississippi needs tort reform
Leaders discuss hospital
Read Our View

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

The Bolivar Commercial
LEGISLATURE: Passing down the financial buck

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi
Click It or Ticket campaign a success
Sensible ways to end jackpot justice
Strange choice to woo automaker

Mississippi Business Journal
Rapid response first step in closure assistance
MBJ Editorial

Magnolia Report
Candidate/doctor speaks on 'Jackpot Justice'
DLEADER ED: Meaningful results from tort reform panel unlikely
EJ ED: Both sides of the tort reform debate
Dick Boland: Mississippi, sue your way to the morgue
William Clark: Too many lawyers in Legislature
DLEADER ED: Special session won't address entire problem
Rich Campbell: Governor should call just one session
Jack Elliott: Lawsuit seeks public defender

The New York Times

The Washington Post

The Washington Times