

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Saturday - Monday, November 23-25, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

Musgrove: Pass bill, go home

Miss. inmate's execution set for Dec. 11

Sirens: A false sense of security

In-home safe rooms provide families refuge from a storm

Weather radios: 'Best thing you can have'

Prison passes audit check

MDA fires its D.C. lawyer for base closure issues

MUW to hasten storm repairs

Holiday spending off to a solid start

Bush weighs tax cut ideas

WorldCom officials find an ally

Editorials

DUI: MADD report outlines weaknesses

Lott's ships: Power, influence & protectionism

Big game!: Capital City Classic matchup today

Use 'State Guard' in many instances

Taylor endorses Lott's provision that benefits small La. shipbuilder

Bush presidency debated at USM conference

Editorials

State budget: Priorities, not politics, should lead

Governor's budget a contradiction

Seek solutions, not needless conflict

Interested citizens join to form special interest groups

Let voters pay for campaigning

Judges appointed now: by citizens

Appointing judges has own problems

Tort reform won't help average folk

Gift idea for many legislators is luggage

Governor, Legislature submit FY2004 budgets as special funds drive debate

Gov. Ronnie Musgrove: Brain Trust invests in best minds for Mississippi future

Watts up for a possible White House strategy?

Pickering, Thompson share the same golden opportunity

Frustration dogs tort effort

Election-influencing feared

Tornado victims get federal disaster loans

Spending freeze may be thawing

Editorials

'Brain Trust': Musgrove's higher ed idea merited

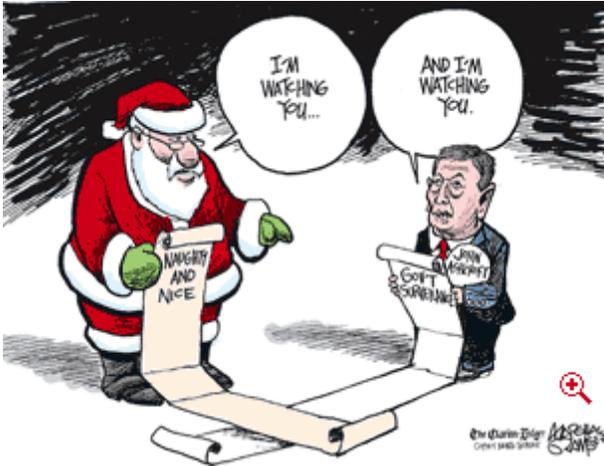

Tort reform II: Time to make decision, go home

Miss. women: Empowerment a legitimate issue

'Where's the beef' in education fund?

MUW thankful for post-storm help

Supreme Court Justice McRae did his job, and did it well

The Sun Herald Biloxi

Will Legislature again use red ink to write budget?

Mississippi fires base-closing lobbyist

DHS hopes new program will recruit social workers

Too much free time begins to weigh on lawmakers

OTHER VOICES:

A surprising turn of the political worm

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

Governor - Pass bill and go home

Blue Mountain College to get new access road, entrance

GED test has undergone a variety of changes in the past year

NEWS ANALYSIS: Civil justice negotiations not for weak of heart

EDITORIAL: Lawmakers need something substantive before adjournment

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN

Auditors rate Parchman high, will urge prison accreditation

Tobacco talk targets teen vanity

January peek to show how I-69 to affect environment

Tort reform poses fiercest test yet for Miss. House speaker

Suit accord 'this close'... maybe

New England trio could cause Lott headache as leader

Editorial 11/24: Education's burden falls on the states

Hattiesburg American

State needs to address DUI problem

AARP seeks help from Pickering

USM enrollment of blacks jumps 87.8 percent

Meridian Star

Activists seek reversal of 3rd District decision

- Mayor confident in 3rd District appeal
- MUW: Name change in the wind?
- Ax falls on base closure consultant — Bynum
- The endless special session — Cassreino
- An eleventh-hour power play

Laurel Leader-Call

Lawmakers leave for weekend with tort reform issues hanging
Mississippi fires base closure lobbyist

DeSoto Times Today Hernando

College Board OKs doctoral program in Southaven

The Clarksdale Press Register

Parchman passes audit, takes a step to accreditation
Where's the outrage when wrongdoing is obvious?
Newspaper owner to appear on 60 Minutes this Sunday

Daily Times Leader West Point

Vicksburg Post

ASU to add classes in Vicksburg

The Bolivar Commercial Cleveland

The Delta Democrat Times Greenville

After Gotham, Mississippi and the Delta look great

Enterprise Journal McComb

Ten Commandments rulings cast eye toward high court
Emmerich interview set for Sunday's '60 Minutes'
Retailer protection ties up conferees
Editorials for Friday, Nov. 22, 2002

The Natchez Democrat

Doctors get their '15 minutes'on '60 Minutes' Sunday

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Funds will boost workforce in 20 poorest counties
Workforce funding

Musgrove visits Agricola

Tort reform headache awaits
Funds will boost workforce in
20 poorest counties
DHS head hopes new program
will recruit more social workers

The Mississippi Press
Pascagoula
students

The Picayune Item

Civil justice headache awaits Mississippi lawmakers on return
Musgrove veto stands on banking bill
California teachers are nation's highest paid, report says

Starkville Daily News

FEMA officials to visit Crawford Monday to provide disaster relief 11/24
McCullough: TVA leaders plan for future 11/24

The Daily Leader Brookhaven

Good schools, good teachers found here

The Daily Sentinel Star Grenada

Mississippi Business Journal

First Nissan supplier opens facility in Vicksburg
As I See It

Magnolia Report

Barbour throws party for Maryland Governor elect Robert Ehrlich, Bo Derek,
Republican governors 11/23
Stan Tiner: The fight for the future of South Mississippi has only just begun 11/24

Stateline.org

National Media

Problem of Lost Health Benefits Is Reaching Into the Middle Class

G.O.P. Governors Argue Whether to Stroll or Steamroll

Changing of Republican Budget Guard Could Create Waves

Analysis: GOP Governors Face Test

Knight: Giuliani, WorldCom Won't Mix

N.Y. Fiscal Crisis Is Echoed Across Nation

Stiffing States And Cities

Mississippi TV Stories

WorldCom Owes Louisiana Money

Worldcom unable to pay $900,000 it owes Louisiana

Conferees Stall on Reform

Jobless Benefits Cut

Other

Weekly Papers