

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday, November 7, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

Lott, Cochran ride GOP wave into power posts

2nd Dist. voting surprise to some

GOP savors 'Capitol' gains

Will the real Ala. governor please stand up?

2 children's homes under investigation

Jucos aim to avoid budget cuts

Voters approve flag referendum on coast

Thames: Don't cut higher ed

Fed slashes rate by half-point

GOP-led Congress may break logjam

Stocks gain on Fed's half-point interest rate cut

Editorials

Elections: Statewide races send a message

Nationally . . . : Lott, Cochran ride the GOP tide

Juries in this state can't be trusted

Paul Breazeale: Votes reaffirm the wisdom of the electorate

The Sun Herald Biloxi

Lott back in saddle in Senate

USM faculty complaining about proposed pay changes

Bush the biggest winner of all

Home insurers seeking 'extremely high' rate hikes

Gambling industry won some, lost some in elections

Lott: Pickering to be one of first judges confirmed

Voters respond to personal, professional issues in Supreme Court election

Legislative negotiators to meet on business liability bill

Virginia group outspends field in Supreme Court campaign advertisements

Tort reformers get big boost

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

New Albany's Littlejohn wins chancery election

Support in circuit court race thrills Aycock

Legislature must now decide how to address civil justice system

Senate leadership now back in state

DAVID BRODER: Bush led GOP gains; Democrats floundered

BILL MINOR: Mondale helped shape state's history

OPINION: The people's voice: Judicial outcomes speak to tort reform issue

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN

GOP gains transform Washington

For Democrats, a costly absence of black voters

Details left to lawmakers with voters' OK of lottery

Fed action prods prime rate cut to 43-year low

Mid-South banks shiver over rate cut

Fed slash cuts both ways with Wall Street

Experts betting lottery won't rattle Tunica

It's a grand new day for state's GOP

Hattiesburg American

Shows blames lack of money

Dickinson takes high court position

Voter turnout exceeds forecasts

Party control means money

Voters shed their apathy to cast ballots in key judicial contests

Voters opt for change at the polls

Vote to remove 'tort' opponents

Legislature works for us

Meridian Star

Chip by a country mile

Shows concedes

Kenny Griffis wins seat, Jess Dickinson takes post

Pickering victory a family affair

Laurel Leader-Call

DeSoto Times Today Hernando

Eight county schools rated 'superior-performing'

RiverKings to honor children in Accelerated Reader Program

The Clarksdale Press Register

Local officials say they are pleased with voter turnout

Runoff likely in Coahoma County judge race

Thompson beats back tough challenge from LeSueur

Rorhlack discusses economic development

Credit the president for Republicans' big night

Daily Times Leader West Point
GOP well supported across the nation 11/07
Wicker addresses Clay County 11/07

Vicksburg Post
Price, Arledge head to runoff

The Bolivar Commercial Cleveland
GIVING: Mississippi leads nation again

The Delta Democrat Times Greenville
Runoff looms in local chancery judge race
Questions on federal plan

Enterprise Journal McComb
Editorials for Wednesday, November 6, 2002
Sid Salter: More elections next year; Musgrove man to beat

The Natchez Democrat
Federal officials observe certification of affidavit ballots
Terror drill turns into bomb scare

The Greenwood Commonwealth
Osborne wins judge's seat
Smith keeps seat on 4th Circuit bench
Credit president for GOP victories
Higher ed leader has been effective
Countdown under way for 2003
Mayor Brown just telling truth about Tchula

The Mississippi Press Pascagoula
Watts to serve as 3rd term chancery judge

The Picayune Item

Starkville Daily News

The Daily Leader Brookhaven
Lincoln Co. favors Chip

The Daily Sentinel Star Grenada

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Sam Hall: Shows' next political fight may be Tuck 11/6

Lott: Judge Pickering among first nominees to be confirmed 11/6

For friends of Trent Lott, it seems like old times 11/7

MSGOP Chair: Pushing vote key to wins 11/7

Stateline.org

National Media

White House Claims Mandate

Gephardt to Quit as House Minority Leader

Ga. Shows GOP Strengths

Adrift, Dems Ponder Direction

Ehrlich Gets Off to Quick Start

GOP Senate Takeover No Guarantee

GOP Eyes Quick Judicial Approvals

Just Another Day for Pitt, SEC

Pitt Fell Short of Wall Street's Hopes

Mississippi TV Stories

Lott: Pickering To Be Among First Judges Confirmed

Junior colleges to lobby against budget cuts

Election May Benefit Elder Pickering

Broward County Finds 103,222 Lost Votes

Republican Controlled Senate Could Hold Good News for Judge Charles Pickering

Political Future Remains Unclear for Ousted Congressman Ronnie Show

D.E.Q. Announces Plans to Clean Up Creosote Contamination in Hattiesburg

Alexander and education

Lottery issue not over after election

Bredesen: Tennesseans are ready for change

West Nile Threat Down

Ala. Gov. Race Dispute

USM-Choctaw Pact

Other

Weekly Papers