

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Friday, November 8, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

After-school program designed for parents, too

USM weighs ending perk

No tort reform plan ready for vote

State rejects Madison County reappraisal

Lawmaker involved in accident

State high court delays deciding killer's appeal

Economic indicators promising

Experts: Pitt exit taints agency

Editorials

Conventions: Jackson center would boost state

Election '02: Gephardt is wise to step down

Economy: Fed dropping interest startling move

Nov. 5 election and beyond all about choices

The Sun Herald Biloxi

Out-of-state ads marred court vote

Memphis firm may stop production at Bruce mill

Gov. Musgrove presents grant to Wiggins

Negotiators tackle business liability

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

Negotiations begin on general civil justice legislation

CHARLIE LANGFORD: Some notes and thoughts on the outcome of Tuesday's vote

SID SALTER: Musgrove's still the man to beat in 2003

EDITORIAL: In the majority Mississippi gains from '02 results

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN

Ford will challenge two veterans for House Democrat leadership

Hattiesburg American

Pickering to get 2nd chance

Fed reduces interest rates

Confusion reigned in court race

Meridian Star

Laurel Leader-Call

Lott: Pickering to be one of 1st judges confirmed

DeSoto Times Today Hernando

Response team a go as county gets \$100,000 grant

The Clarksdale Press Register

Allen and Gresham to square off Nov. 19

Voters correct two miscarriages of justice

Daily Times Leader West Point

Vicksburg Post

The Bolivar Commercial Cleveland

District speaker raps 'No Child Left Behind'

The Delta Democrat Times Greenville

Enterprise Journal McComb

Mayor takes exception to story; withdrawal statement reprinted

Juco officials push to keep current funding

Editorials for Thursday, November 7, 2002

The Natchez Democrat

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Republicans bask in their success at the polls

Voters send own tort reform message

Still, judges should not be elected

The Mississippi Press Pascagoula

The Picayune Item

SBA offers loan assistance

Mississippi Republicans bask in their general election successes

Starkville Daily News

The Daily Leader Brookhaven

The Daily Sentinel Star Grenada

Where are the golf course bonds?

Mississippi Business Journal

American Eurocopter to locate new plant in Lowndes County

Magnolia Report

Voters respond to personal, professional issues in Supreme Court election 11/7

Brian Perry: 'Yankee Jew media' 11/7

Stateline.org

National Media

3rd House Member Joins Fight to Succeed Gephardt

The Race for Gephardt's Post

Post-Election Alabama Seeing Double

Mississippi TV Stories

Officials Count Ballots From Deleted Voters

Legislator Involved in Morning Accident

New Nissan Interchange Dedicated

Riley-Siegelman Race

DAYBRITE LIGHTING LAYS OFF 90+ EMPLOYEES

ALABAMA GOVERNOR CALLS FOR RECOUNT

RUNOFF SET IN CHANCERY JUDGE RACE

Other

FRUITS OF VICTORY

Racial vote disparity forced Landrieu into runoff

Weekly Papers

Barbour to visit Stone

Neshoba supports Pickering in big win