

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Friday, November 15, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

Gov. eyes $200M for higher ed

Pittman: Appoint appellate judges

Federal, state agencies probe waste recycler

Senate approves liability bill

Disaster relief on the way for Miss.

DUI cases dismissed; tickets invalid

Senator may run for new position

Dangerous bridge still being used

Steady Oct. retail sales raise optimism

Editorials

Tort reform II: Non-economic damage limits key

Crime: Statistics don't match perceptions

Byram: Incorporation issue dodged for now

What message being sent with driver release?

The Sun Herald Biloxi

Barbour all but running for governor

Mercy Ship to make Mississippi its home port

Regulators looking into Yazoo City recycler's operation

Musgrove's budget tightens state's belt

Biggest jump in retail sales in 6 months

Mississippi chief justice proposes appointing judges

Gulf Coast Mental Health Center gets grant

Senate approves bill, bypassing its own negotiators

Lowndes County eligible for federal disaster aid

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

House, Senate begin maneuvering

Musgrove presents budget focusing on education

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN

Musgrove budget makes deep cuts

Bill provides funds for storm-related repairs

Hattiesburg American

Meridian Star

Laurel Leader-Call

Homeowners getting squeezed by insurance climate

Storms cause millions in state damage

DeSoto Times Today Hernando
Senate OKs new civil justice bill

The Clarksdale Press Register
Higher-education leader has been effective
Lott continues to let down conservatives, she says

Daily Times Leader West Point

Vicksburg Post

The Bolivar Commercial Cleveland

The Delta Democrat Times Greenville

Enterprise Journal McComb
Editorial for Friday, Nov. 15, 2002

The Natchez Democrat
Musgrove budget more conservative

The Greenwood Commonwealth
Patrol's DUI cases thrown out due to improper tickets
House approves funds for repairs to storm sites
Have the judges no common sense?

The Mississippi Press Pascagoula

The Picayune Item
Students take byte out of computer shortage
Negotiations on tort reform not at hopeless stage, conferees say

Starkville Daily News

The Daily Leader Brookhaven

The Daily Sentinel Star Grenada
Lawmakers still haggling over tort reform
Mississippians feel chill of insurance climate
Mississippi needs special election, not special session

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Haley Barbour: "I am very serious about running for governor. I've visited 55 counties so far this year and I think that speaks to how serious I am" 11/14

Haley Barbour: "The next governor, if he can do a good job of engaging and deploying our senators and working with President Bush, that can mean a lot. It will pay big dividends for Mississippi" 11/14

Stateline.org

National Media

Homeland Bill Rider Aids Drugmakers

Mississippi TV Stories

Mercy Ship Makes Coast Connection

Negotiations On Tort Reform Not At Hopeless Stage, Conferees Say

Musgrove Budget Heavy Into Funding For Education

President Declares Federal Disaster In Mississippi

Classes to resume at storm damaged university

Senate Passes New Tort Reform Bill

STATE SENATE PASSES NEW BILL ON TORT REFORM

Other

Weekly Papers

Bomb threat cuts Governor's speech short