

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMAR

Tuesday, July 9, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Former WorldCom execs invoke Fifth

State to conduct 'virtual audits'

DUI citations increase for holiday

Official: Keep prison programs

Miss. 'degree gap' growing, College Board member says

Editorials

It's time to stop frivolous lawsuits

U.S. Chamber shows its disdain for today's Mississippi

The Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

WorldCom execs, ex-auditors clash

Musgrove names Walker to head Marine Resources

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Ebbers pleads Fifth Amendment at congressional hearings

State College Board concerned with 'degree gap'

Auditor says 'virtual audits' could save Mississippi money

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Miss. black caucus gears up to fill possible speaker job

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Senator: Education programs should stay in private prisons

State has degree gap, official says

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

NATCHEZ ED: Musgrove pulling political rabbits out of hat can be trouble

The New York Times

The Washington Post

The Washington Times