

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, July 22, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Reeling firm claims bankruptcy best route

WorldCom filing a letdown

Official visits Ingalls, pledges more ships

Editorials

Forget tort reform, depend on our trusted judicial system

Moore expanding goals, role of attorney general

Doctors turning to last resort

Proposal targets DEQ funding

Doctor to resume practice

The Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

MPHS students building computers for schools'

WorldCom files for bankruptcy protection

Stage set for more executions

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Legislative debate on civil justice system not new

Lawsuit overload has doctors cutting back

Big verdicts behind push for reform

LLOYD GRAY: State's past looms over tort reform debate

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Telecom giant files for relief from debt

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

Social Security reform movement loses steam

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Legislative committee speeding up work

Stage may be set for others to be put to death

Whittington, two others send letter to Musgrove

Mississippi Business Journal

Today's News

Magnolia Report

Sid Salter: Shows should consider own finance problems before pointing finger at Pickering

WorldCom no surprise

Record corporate bankruptcy

David Hampton: State should aggressively pursue children's health care

Governor Musgrove declares July as Walk of Hope Month

Sid Salter: Will tort reform cut rates?

Natchez physician testifies on tort reform

The New York Times

The Washington Post

WorldCom Files Record Bankruptcy Case

The Washington Times