

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, July 29, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Tort Reform

Race for seat on high court proving costly

CEOs left with tarnished images amid recent corporate scandals

Editorials

Mr. Speaker pondering his future

Popular Neshoba County Fair offers it all

Recent scandals shaping strategy

Stennis at full throttle despite grounded fleet

Jobs up, along with challenges

Editorials

The Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Legislators to jump on tort report

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Brookhaven wins Miss Hospitality

Musgrove's prison plan makes sense

Laurel Leader-Call

More of this story Shows-Pickering debate highlighting Neshoba Co. Fair politics for this year

More of this story Work goes on as lawmakers consider Howard Industries incentive package

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Full Story ▶

The Natchez Democrat

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Race for \$upreme Court proving co\$tly

Sid Salter: Thunder under the Pavilion
Sid Salter: Substance and style in politics at Neshoba
MERIDIAN ED: Democratic plan attacking Charles Pickering may have backfired
Sid Salter: Top 50 law firm list shows 9 in Mississippi
David Hampton: Supreme Court should keep the state's ethics rule strict
Legislators to jump on tort report
GWCOR ED: If prison closes, blame legislature

The New York Times

The Washington Post

The Washington Times