

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Saturday-Monday, October 5-7, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

Insurance forces clinic to halt maternity service

Spectator gallery dwindles as tort reform meetings plod on

Coast begins Lili cleanup

Back-to-back storms heavy blow for casinos

Tobacco tax increase proposed

Moore wants DHS in special session mix

Attorney wants chief justice off of jury award case

Tribe marks opening of new casino

Jobless rate unexpectedly takes dip

Tobacco fund tempts budget chiefs again

Filling post focus of meeting

Editorials

Tort reform: Rank-and-file lawmakers must act

Scholarships: Schools should be allowed flexibility

Teach legislators at the voting booth

Speaker's race is at root of tort battle

Ole Miss gives model to nation in reconciliation

U.S. Rep. Roger Wicker: Will U.S. Senate address medical liability?

Congress eyes tort reform

Oh, how much we depend on energy in state

Donald V. Adderton: Vote for 'change' in Legislature

Miss. loses $14.3M in Medicare

Tort-reform negotiators appear closer to deal

Miss. minorities top ownership

Caps on lawsuits can affect victims

Voters should not assist tort reform

Trial lawyers are not 'the problem'

Elect those who favor tort reform

Call in Youth Legislature to pass responsible tort reform

The Sun Herald Biloxi

Musgrove talks tort in Pascagoula

Musgrove defends I-59 call

Budget problems hurting hiring, DHS says

Moore wants Legislature to aid DHS

Ad apologizes for I-59 call

Special election in November will fill Senate seat

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

LOANS TO JUDGES PROBED

House, Senate conferees work out medical malpractice compromise - 10:13 AM EDT

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

Lili's wind, rain cause minor damage in area

Negotiators optimistic as they break until Sunday

Governor to determine Monday whether race to be in old or new

AUBREY PATTERSON: Too large a compromise nullifies 'reform'

Negotiators find no middle ground in Sunday session

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN

Miss. lawmakers catch Tenn. gridlock disease

DeSoto high school students build computers for Mississippi

Tort reform battle continues

Doctors head to Capitol toe xpress views on tort reform

Hattiesburg American

Lawmakers consider 'power play'

Pine Belt physicians plan lobbying trip

Negotiators to hold work session today

House must prepare to act boldly

State officials impede progress

Urge lawmakers to pass reforms

Doctors pursue others' agenda

Meridian Star

• Nursing home owner hangs it up, retires — Monk

• Congress passes medical tort reform — Pickering

Laurel Leader-Call

State company apologizes to Louisiana residents

State considers increasing cigarette tax

DeSoto Times Today Hernando

Planning required to determine jail needs

The Clarksdale Press Register

Parole Board mum on specifics of Lattimore case

A tale of two murder victims

What if joint and several liability applied at ballot box?

Mayo, though wrong on death penalty, is man of integrity

Daily Times Leader West Point

The Bolivar Commercial Cleveland

Storm huffs and puffs but damages little here

The Delta Democrat Times Greenville

What's it to be? Political change or status quo?

Enterprise Journal McComb

Medical malpractice negotiations termed close

Jack Elliott: Sen. Bill Burgin recalled as both charmer and bully

The Natchez Democrat

Still no agreement on tort reform bill among conferees

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Prison or jail? County left in dark about state plans for converting Delta Correctional, Leflore officials say

Lawyer: Chief justice shouldn't hear case

Leading lawyers back longer terms

Going overboard on giveaways

Hospitals do too much in secret

The Mississippi Press Pascagoula

Musgrove lobbies Pas MDs

The Picayune Item

Poplarville company apologizes for Musgrove's decision

Medical malpractice negotiators to return Sunday

The Daily Leader Brookhaven

The Daily Star Grenada

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Stateline.org

The New York Times

A Sacrifice in Mississippi Remembered on a New York Mountain

The Washington Post

Questioning the Need for Tort Reform

The Washington Times

The Times-Picayune New Orleans

Escaping on I-59 in Miss. debated

Weekly Mississippi Newspapers

City gets grant for water system project

