

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday, March 14, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Tuberculosis: Tricky to track, treat, disease still a threat

Lawsuit to cost state $124,195

Democrats key to Pickering's fate

Hosemann apologizes for comments

Billboard size bill passes in House

Alderwoman, police chief scuffle

Albertson's closing stores

Nissan seeks additional job applications

Fuel economy rules rejected

State cited for industrial, job growth

More

Editorials

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Lawsuit leads to ethics questions

COMING SUNDAY

Bishop: No tolerance of child abuse

State cited for industry growth

Senate opposes higher fuel-efficiency standards

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Accelerated tax bill passes Senate

Teddy bear bill heads to governor for signature

Billboard restrictions bill passes House

Senate strips proposed new circuit judgeships out of bill

Group vows political fallout if new district falls

Mississippi receives wildlife funding

College Board members - Use House plan, but have longer terms

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

House may vote today on increase in sales tax

Democrats veering to Clement for Senate

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Pickering may learn his fate today

City seeks funds to help homeless

Barbour: State has 'tremendous appetite for change'

State lacks visionary leadership

Officials neglect public education

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

State makes Top 10 'growth' list

Demonizing language undermines process — Monk

Let the campaign begin

What was he thinking?

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Industry hit hard with no tort reform
Doctors looking at moving across river
Commission develops flagpole rules
Read Our View

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Pickering's chances not good
Senate: SW Miss. won't get 3rd judge
Nissan still looking for production workers
Editorials for Thursday, March 14, 2002
Tim Kalich: Parker should have zipped his lip
Bill Minor: Hazel Brannon Smith story revived

Stateline.org

Mississippi House Votes To Limit Billboard Size
Mississippi Lawsuit Leads To Ethics Questions
Mississippi Lawsuit Leads To Ethics Questions
Mississippi Senate OKs Bill To Make Teddy Bear The State Toy

The Clarksdale Press Register

Mike Parker should have zipped his lips
Welty wrote but, more important, listened

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

House approves paternity proposal
Resolution to revamp College Board clears House
Don't trust promises from lawmakers
Voluntary smoking ban better than law
Prison glut creates insane system
Drug courts are better alternative than prison

Mississippi Business Journal

Today's News

Magnolia Report

Haley Barbour talks with Laurel voters while eyeing governor's chair
RollCall: Did Lott do a second-hand inhale? Perhaps, but no party man like Alexander and other roommates
Health care industry hit hard with no tort reform
Senate strips proposed new circuit judgeships out of bill
Judge Hosemann apologizes for comments
Citizens for a New Mississippi demand black majority legislative district in Lee, Chickasaw and Pontotoc
AP: Senate Committee to vote on Pickering
Reuters: Bush faces first defeat on judicial nomination
If vote were in Laurel, Pickering would pass
Democrat foes focus on Pickering record
Jerry Mitchell: Democrats key to Pickering's fate
Troy Brown LTE: Pickering fight could undo racial progress
Choice stacking insurance bill passes House

Accelerated tax bill passes Senate
Billboard size bill passes in House
NATCHEZ ED: Who said state doesn't tackle tough, fuzzy issues?
NATCHEZ ED: Who said state doesn't tackle tough, fuzzy issues?
GWCOM ED: Drug courts are better alternative than prison
PRESS REGISTER ED: Voluntary smoking ban is better than legislation
Brian Perry: Remember September 11

The New York Times

Daschle Sets Stage for Key Vote on Campaign Finance Overhaul
Miss. Senate Honors Teddy Bears
Sen. Committee to Vote on Pickering

The Washington Post

Confirmation Fight: Replay and Preview

The Neshoba Democrat

An education budget

The Bolivar Commercial

Gov. Musgrove contends school cuts were wrong