

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Wednesday, March 20, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

New legislative maps draw mixed reviews

New legislative districts \(image\)

Limit for drunken driving lowered

Herbicide restrictions implemented in Delta

Hosemann to step down from bench

Madison County ex-chancery clerk found dead

Interest rates left alone — for now

Medicaid for poor, elderly, disabled

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Tribunals to be like courts-martial

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Legislative redistricting plans unveiled;

Bill to revise catfish property tax goes to governor

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Governor signs bill lowering DUI limits in Mississippi

Warren County judge accused of assault says he's retiring

Medicaid cuts would shake rural Mississippi, doctor says

4 appalled that plan banishes districts

New state House, Senate maps win redistricting committee OK

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Tort system jeopardizes trauma care

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

State owes Lauderdale County for holding inmates

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Read Our View

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Editorials for Wednesday, March 20, 2002

Stateline.org

Mississippi Breast Cancer Campaign Kicks Off

Mississippi Lowers Limit For Drunken Driving

Mississippi Restricts Herbicide Use In Delta

Mississippi's New Legislative Maps Draw Mixed Reviews

The Clarksdale Press Register

Don't further diminish governor's authority

Don't trust promises from the Legislature

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Doctor: Medicaid cuts would shake rural areas redistricting legislative district redistricting map; Senate to vote Spending

Some senators want opened up New map adds extra to Greenwood area House approves new freeze put on class supplies Big plans in works at airport Doctor: Medicaid cuts would shake rural areas

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

- Judge Hosemann resigns from bench
- Former Madison chancery clerk Steve Duncan found dead in car in Georgia
- GWCOM ED: Put Pickering rejection to rest, Lott should drop revenge plans
- LTE: State stood firmly behind Pickering
- House approves own redistricting plan 107-14
- House votes to approve plan, Senate next
- Clarion Ledger: Maps of legislative redistricting plan
- Senator Hob Bryan: lines drawn to help Democrats
- Republicans lose districts in new maps
- South Mississippi gets bad deal in redistricting
- Sam Hall: Elvis loses his district, but considers a run for lieutenant governor
- Greenwood area gains a district
- GWCOM ED: Redistricting should be done in the open
- Acceptable blood alcohol level lowered
- Catfish farmer tax relief bill heads to Musgrove
- Herbicide restrictions implemented in Delta
- House passes Deer Island purchase bill
- HUB ED: Tort system jeopardizes trauma care
- Wyatt Emmerich: Fate of tort reform could be read in House speaker's smile
- Charlie Mitchell: Top Ten free list of stuff to do in Mississippi

The New York Times

- Senators Move Toward Votes on Election Overhaul Bills
- Alltel Buys CenturyTel's Cellular
- Cos. Push for Gas Royalty Relief
- Weather Around the U.S.A.
- Cingular to Invest $700 Million in South
- Clinton Veterans Flood U.S. Election Ballots

The Washington Post
Barking Sands Worse Than the Bite