

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday, March 28, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

DHS seeking $15.4M for federal match

Cell-phone bill veto overridden

Judge rescinds his resignation

Deputies plead innocent in death of sheriff's killer

Schools returned to local control

Khayat says he's staying at Ole Miss

Lawmakers send voting bills to gov.

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

United, we speak with a louder voice

Legislators tiptoe around the 'T'-word

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

House, Senate override Musgrove's cell phone veto

BILL MINOR: Legislators reject remedies for program reversals

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Analysis: Legislators must follow Musgrove

State of emergency lifted in Oktibbeha, Tunica school districts

Lawmakers override Musgrove cell phone rule veto

Warren County judge moves to withdraw resignation

Tunica schools about to take big step toward accreditation

Head of Department of Marine Resources resigns

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

New council will benefit state

More southern voters packed in new districts

Laurel Leader-Call Laurel, Mississippi

Mississippi schools' funding on track to be millions short

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Stakes growing in tort reform debate

Read Our View

Will someone tell state the emperor is naked?

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

Value of education can't be overemphasized

The Bolivar Commercial

EDUCATION: Failing to see what's on the wall

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Jurors can put check on lawsuit abuse

Which one would Scruggs bankroll?

Mississippi Business Journal

Workforce training funds mired in budget cutbacks

The Big Race: Pickering vs. Shows

Magnolia Report

Lott, Pickering, Wicker, Musgrove join Christopher Reeve at Sigma Nu fundraiser

The New York Times

The Washington Post