

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Friday, March 29, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Edge in House at stake, Pickering, Shows say
TB rate below national average
DHS chief stands firm: no deficit, no resignation
Talk up Mississippi, Lott says
The Complete Election Man Series
View Current Cartoon
Editorials
You just never know how outsiders view us in Mississippi
Reparations for slavery an issue worth debating
'One-horse town' ready to grow with the times, Nissan's arrival
Miss. Court suspends Yazoo County judge
Women awarded in HUD case
GDP up 1.7% in '01 4th quarter
Should doctors pay for Medicaid, teachers for education?
Why not combine into 'Choices' tag?

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Democrats focusing on economy
Olivier sails through committee vote

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Governor may get more say on Medicaid
Third Day plays to 3,500 people in Tupelo
Economic warming: National figures show quickening recovery
CHARLIE LANGFORD: State's 9/11 memorial license plates soon a reality?

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Mississippi AP News Digest
DEQ reissues advisory against eating bottom-feeder fish from Delta waters
Musgrove signs disaster, school laws
Governor signs bill requiring local emergency representatives
Analysis: Budget 'train wreck' seems likely
High school students overhaul computers for classrooms

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Phillips stands behind decision despite state audit
Voter scorecard slanted to left

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Pilot objects to cell phone tower near NAS Meridianr
State requests inmate medical bills

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Doctors find Musgrove noncommittal
Hospital building political muscle
Stakes growing in tort reform debate
Read Our View
Status quo entrenched on wireless phone issue

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Sid Salter: Tax chief off base criticizing Gov.
Wyatt Emmerich: Medical crisis reaches Centreville
Supervisors back prayer amendment
Musgrove, area doctors discuss tort reform
Editorials for Friday, March 29, 2002
Bill Minor: Lawmakers shun raising taxes
Letters to the editor for Friday, March 29, 2002
Editorials for Thursday, March 28, 2002

Stateline.org

Mississippi DHS Chief Stands Firm
Mississippi DHS Seeking $15.4M For Federal Match
Mississippi GOP: New District Maps Favor Democrats
Mississippi Legislators Send Voting Bills To Governor
Mississippi Lawmakers Override Cell Phone Veto
Mississippi TB Rate Drops Below National Average

The Clarksdale Press Register

Tax increases are taboo in the state Legislature
Conference on Delta gangs set for next month
Lawsuit-happy Mississippi has medical crisis on its hands

The Bolivar Commercial

Delta residents may be fishing for big trouble
Former Supreme Court justice speaks on Women of the Constitution at DSU

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Gov. open to tort reform session
Advisory reissued for fish from Delta waters

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Pickering, Shows debate on Statewide Live
Sen Hob Bryan LTE: Remapping plan openly discussed
Attorney general to attend seminar on gang violence
DHS chief says no deficit, no resignation

The New York Times

The Washington Post