

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, March 18, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Trauma care system crumbling as med centers lose surgeons

Storm cleanup under way; Jones schools can't open

Deer Island acquisition up for vote

Domestic violence aid offered

'Status of Women' hearings planned

Purse strings, jobs priority, new Black Caucus leader says

Sonic adding breakfast menu

Marshall Ramsey on the Legislature

Perry celebrates 60th birthday as lawmakers sing

Legislature addresses education, even in difficult year

Support, improvement of public education key to future

Job fairs focus state's response to industrial shutdowns

Budget dilemma: 'Many good programs, little money'

More

Editorials

Legislature should tighten its belt, too

Thank lawmakers for great 'benefits'

IDs would help speed voting process

Cigarette tax hike would improve more than the budget

5 killers, $4 million, 20 years, no justice

Government funds often seen as free

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Mapping out the power

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Violent storms pound Mississippi

Lawmakers say diversity attracts campaign cash

Planning for the future: Health camp homes to attract youngsters

Hard Facts: State should learn lesson from Hyundai

LLOYD GRAY: Pickering and the power of relationships

DANNY McKENZIE: Legislators waste time grousing over bill

The Tax Man: Retirement, education becoming more lucrative

Hard Facts: State should learn lesson from Hyundai

MDOT may cut county projects funds

Budget committee lowers revenue estimate

Partisan payback: Pickering's unjust treatment wasn't really about the man

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Cleanup begins after storms hit central and south Mississippi

Rohrlack gets ribbing along with panel nod

Campaign finance law by Friday, Daschle vows

GOP senator warns Democrats to hold hearings on judge picks

States seek flight school limits

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Two Jones schools to remain closed after tornado strikes

Why is state slow to start drug courts?

Meridian Star Meridian, Mississippi

Jones County assesses Doppler problems
MDA: Is politics getting in the way? — Bynum
Alphabetical discrimination — Ziemba
Outrage
Mississippi's new state toy

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Officials bring tidings from Washington
Was justice served in Pickering debacle?
Who said state doesn't tackle tough, fuzzy issues?
Note to lawmakers: State Medicaid boat still sinking

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Stateline.org

Mississippi Black Caucus Leader Envisions Bigger Role For Group
Mississippi Hospitals Losing Surgeons
Mississippi Lawmakers To Vote On Deer Island Acquisition
Mississippi Mapping Out Power
US Testing Policy: One Size May Not Fit All
US: EPA Will Ease Coal Plant Rules

The Clarksdale Press Register

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Lawmakers: Diversity attracts campaign cash
Three counties hit by storms
Advocates: Elderly can be silent victims
Despite hard times, people still giving

Mississippi Business Journal

Today's News

Magnolia Report

National parties gear up to help Pickering v Shows campaign
TIMES of S-MS ED: It's time for Bennie to go 3/18
RollCall: Shows accuses Pickering of being a transsexual? Or just a message problem from the DNC? 3/18
Chancery Judge Glenn Barlow announces plans for reelection 3/17
Legislative Black Caucus leaders envisions larger role for organization 3/18
Lawyers, alcohol industry big campaign financiers for legislators 3/17
Gov Ronnie Musgrove Column: Job fairs focus state's response to industrial shutdowns 3/17
Senator Alice Harden Column: Legislature addresses education, even in difficult year 3/17
Rep Joe Warren Column: Support, improvement of public education key to future 3/17

WashTimes: South and Mississippi may rebel against Pickering vote 3/16
GOP talks retaliation 3/17
GOP talks retaliation 3/17
Who will be next nominee: Wingate, Southwick, Wallace 3/16
Coast business leaders lobby delegation 3/17
Government pays well on the Coast 3/17
Deer Island purchase up for vote 3/18
HUB ED: Why is state slow to start drug courts? 3/18
Dan Davis: Governor from Pascagoula? If not Mike Moore, how about Trent Lott or Curt Hebert? 3/17
Sid Salter: 5 killers, $4 million, 20 years, no justice 3/17
Stan Tiner: North Mississippi newspapers understand regionalism, time for the Coast to do the same 3/17
SUN HERALD NOTEBOOK: Steve Hollan's opus; Wacky College Board; Taxing and Spending 3/17
CL NOTEBOOK: House Clerks's 60th b-day; Gordon and Musgrove on different planets; Delta bears 3/17

The New York Times

Senate GOP Mulls Options on Judges
Lott,irate Over Judge, Plans to Block Daschle Aide

The Washington Post

EPA Will Ease Coal Plant Rules
'Mississippi Pinocchio': Fun, but a Nose Shy of Magical
COAST TO COAST
All That Jazz
Agreement Reached in Wetlands Suit
This New Old House
Lott Retaliates for Pickering Loss