Dear Mr. Camillo:

Thank you for your interest in the State of Mississippi. Upon review of your responses to our Press Trip form, I have a few comments.

17 – The cities of Natchez, Ocean Springs and Biloxi are excellent locations to collect information for a travel story. While Jackson is a beautiful cosmopolitan city and our capital I would not include it on this visit due to the long driving distance from the Gulf Coast. Unfortunately your time would be limited from discovering our coastal communities if you decide to remain with your original selection.

If you would, please provide me with the suggested dates of your visit, cities you would like to visit and the city of arrival. With this information I in turn will contact the various communities and inquire as to their level of interest in hosting your visit.
