Mississippi Moving Forward: 1955-1979

From 1955 through 1979, Mississippi moved forward in the areas of civil rights, agriculture, industry, and development. Join us on November 4 at the Old Capitol Museum for the annual social studies teachers workshop to hear civil rights activists, scientists, authors, and community leaders speak about this fascinating and significant period in Mississippi history.

A .5 CEU credit is available to attendees through Mississippi College.
