

Lesson Five: Coming Home

Objectives:

Students will learn about the benefits and challenges facing veterans returning home, particularly the educational and home loan benefits provided by the GI Bill and post-war housing design, and suburban sprawl.

Materials: GI Bill Fast Facts; Internet access; Veterans Going Back to School worksheet; Veterans and Home Loans; Post-War Housing Fast Facts; Newspaper Articles (three articles total); GI Subdivision Map; Map Packet (three maps total); Jackson City Limits; Lesson Five Quiz.

Procedures:

Activity One: Veterans Going Back to School

1. Have students review GI Bill Fast Facts.
2. Go to <http://www.nationalww2museum.org/learn/education/for-students/national-history-day/gi-bill-of-rights.pdf> and read the Education section of The GI Bill of Rights and How it Works published in 1944. Then read the same section of The Amended GI Bill of Rights and How it Works from 1945 (included).
3. Have students compare the two pamphlets and then complete the Veterans Going Back to School worksheet.

Activity Two: Veterans and Home Loans

1. Have students review GI Bill Fast Facts.
2. Distribute the Veterans and Home Loans worksheet and complete the math questions.

Activity Three: GI Dream Homes

1. Have students review Post-War Housing Fast Facts.
2. Distribute the Newspaper Articles about the Tripps Crossing GI Subdivision and the GI Subdivision Map.
3. Conduct a lottery within the class to match each student with a lot. This can be done by writing the names of students and lot numbers on pieces of paper and placing each in separate containers. Then draw a slip from each at the same time to create a match. Or you may have students pick the lot they would have purchased for their dream home.
4. Then, using the image and description of the first home constructed in the subdivision, have students design and draw their own dream home.
5. When all homes are completed, display them on the classroom wall in the layout of the subdivision with the street identifications.

Activity Four: The Start of the Suburban Sprawl

1. Have students review Post-War Housing Fast Facts.
2. Distribute the Map Packet and the Jackson City Limits worksheet to students.
3. Using the maps and the worksheet as a guide, conduct a class discussion about the cause and effect of migration to the suburbs. Ask students to relate this subject to their own hometown. Do they live in a city or a suburb? Where do most of their local population live and work?

Extension Activity:

The GI Bill Today: Have students research Gillespie V. “Sonny” Montgomery, the Mississippian responsible for revising the GI Bill in 1984. Why was the issue of veteran benefits so important to Montgomery? How has the GI Bill changed since then to provide benefits for veterans?

GI Bill Fast Facts

- Necessary because after World War I veterans only received $60 and a train ticket home. In 1932, at the height of the Great Depression, World War I veterans marched on Washington to demand bonus pay; they were kicked out by U.S. troops.
- Formally titled the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944 but better known as the "GI Bill." It was signed into law by President Franklin D. Roosevelt on June 22, 1944.
- Offers four major areas of assistance:
 - Education and job training
 - Guaranty of loans
 - Unemployment allowances
 - Job-finding assistance
- In 1947, the peak year for the GI Bill, forty-nine percent of college students were veterans. By 1956, when the GI Bill ended, out of the sixteen million veterans who served during World War II, 7.8 million had used their benefits to attend college or other educational training.
- Between 1944 and 1952 veterans received nearly 2.4 million home loans.
- Less than twenty percent of funds reserved for unemployment benefits were used by veterans.
- In 1984, Mississippi Congressman Gillespie V. "Sonny" Montgomery revised the GI Bill. It was updated again in 2008 and continues to provide funds for education and home loans to veterans of the armed forces.

THE AMENDED SERVICEMEN'S READJUSTMENT ACT OF 1944. (THE GI BILL OF RIGHTS)

AS AMENDED DECEMBER 28, 1945.

No legislative act is of more importance to prospective veterans than "The GI Bill of Rights," but still, no single law has been so misunderstood. Its provisions can be valuable to the future of the GI who realizes what they can do for him.

"The GI Bill" offers four major kinds of help:

- 1. Education and job training.
- 2. Guaranty of loans.
- 3. Unemployment allowances, including aid for self-employed.
- 4. Job-finding assistance.

EDUCATION

This is an opportunity for you to study anywhere in the United States at any approved school which you consider best in the field you want to enter. You can even go to a school in a foreign country, if the institution is approved by the Veterans Administration. If you were in active service for 90 days or more, part of which was after 16 September 1940* (or discharged for service-incurred disability, if less than 90 days' service); and were discharged under conditions other than dishonorable, you are eligible.

You must apply for this educational help within 4 years after your discharge or the official end of the war, whichever is later, and this education cannot extend beyond 9 years after the end of the war.

The Government will pay to the school you have chosen up to $500 for an ordinary school year to cover tuition, laboratory, library, health, infirmary, and other similar fees, and may pay for books, supplies, equipment, and other necessary expenses, not including living and traveling expenses. The $500 allowed per year may also be paid to a school to permit a veteran to take a short, but expensive course in a technical school, such, for example, as a school of photography. The requirement for pro-rating the payments over a 30-week school year has been abolished. Payments will not be made to institutions or organizations giving you apprentice training on the job.

You will receive a living allowance of $65 a month if you have no dependents and $90 a month if you have one or more. If you go to school on a part-time basis or under an apprenticeship arrangement, a lesser allowance will be determined for you by the Administrator of Veterans Affairs.

The length of any course or courses of education to which you are entitled is measured by your total active honorable service-time in the armed forces on and after September 16, 1940; but every eligible veteran is entitled to at least one year. The maximum period of education is four years.

For example, if you had 2½ years of service after 16 September 1940, you would be entitled to 3½ years of schooling. If you served 4½ years, you would be able to get only 4 years of education under this program because that is the limit. Satisfactory work must be maintained throughout the period. If the period of instruction to which you are entitled ends after the midpoint in any quarter or semester, you'll be permitted to complete the term.

You may go to any institution which will admit you, if it is approved by the Veterans Administration. Among the various types of schools included are: Public or private elementary, secondary, and other schools furnishing education for adults, business schools and colleges, scientific and technical institutions, colleges, vocational schools, junior colleges, teachers' colleges, normal schools, professional schools, universities, and other educational institutions, including correspondence schools (but no subsistence allowance can be paid you if your course is entirely by correspondence). You may choose apprentice or other training on the job.

In some localities, special schools on various educational levels are being set up for veterans. If you've gone as far as third year in high school, for example, but hesitate about going back because you may feel strange in such a youthful environment, these special schools may fill the bill for you. In them you'll be studying with others closer to your age level and interests.

Application for education or training may be made to the nearest regional office of the Veterans Administration, or directly to the educational institution you wish to attend. Of course, it is up to the school to evaluate your credits and accept you as a student.

* Excluding time spent in ASTP (or any similar Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard program) if it was a continuation of your civilian medical, dental, theological or veterinary course, pursued to completion.

GUARANTY OF LOANS

The money involved in the loan guaranty provisions of "The GI Bill" must be used for the purchase or construction of homes (including a lot on which you intend to build), farms, farm equipment or business property. The Government will guarantee part of a loan you make from a bank or other lending agency. It does not give handouts under this provision, but it will guarantee (without security) up to half the amount borrowed by you, provided that the amount guaranteed does not exceed $2,000 for a business loan, or $4,000 for a loan to purchase or build a home, or to purchase and equip a farm.

For example, if you borrow $3,000, Uncle Sam pledges that if you are unable to repay the full amount, he will pay back up to 50 per cent, or $1,500. If you borrow $5,000, the same promise is good for the top limit of $2,000 for a business loan or $2,500 on a real estate loan.

You're still responsible for the debt, however; just because the Government might give you a helping hand doesn't mean you're relieved of all responsibility. The Government can lay a claim against the property of the man who receives the loan. The chief advantage is that the guaranty will help you get more money in the first place—and perhaps on more favorable terms.

On the part of the loan which has been guaranteed, the Government pays the interest for the first year. The rate of interest must not be more than 4 per cent a year. The loan must be payable in full within 25 years for real estate or business, and 40 years in the case of farm loans.

These provisions are available to those who were in active service on or after 16 September 1940; had 90 days or more of service and were released under conditions other than dishonorable, or who became eligible through service-incurred disability or injury regardless of length of service. The application must be made within 10 years after the official end of the war.

Purchase prices of equipment and property must be reasonable, and there must be a fair chance of success in your business (as judged by your experience and the usefulness of the enterprise). Loans may also be guaranteed for repairs and improvements, and to pay back taxes or unpaid assessments against the property.

UNEMPLOYMENT ALLOWANCE

This section also applies to persons who served 90 days or more, after 16 September 1940* and were released under conditions other than dishonorable, or were discharged because of service-incurred injury or disability regardless of length of service, provided the service was after September 16, 1940. This compensation will not exceed a period of 52 weeks. The allowances will be made if you are unemployed within 2 years after discharge or end of the war, whichever is later, but will not be paid more than 5 years after the termination of hostilities.

You must reside in the United States at the time such claim is made, be completely unemployed (or if partially employed, earning less than $23 a week), registered with and continue to report to a public employment office, and able to work and available for suitable work. If you become sick or disabled during a period of unemployment for which allowances have already started, you will not be disqualified, but you cannot qualify in the first place if you are sick and unable to accept suitable job offer.

The weekly allowance under this provision is $20, less wages earned in part-time work above $3. In other words, if you are working part-time and earn $8 a week, and apply for this compensation, you will receive $15 ($20 less $5, which is the amount earned above $3). Keep in mind that you can get this unemployment pay up to 52 weeks; if you apply for it while you're working part-time, you may use it up and not have it available if you should be wholly unemployed later.

State employment compensation programs provide weekly payments for unemployed workers in jobs covered by State regulations; regulations include most jobs in private firms in business and industry; factories, shops, mines, mills, stores, offices, banks, and related institutions.

Types of jobs not covered under State programs are farm work, household service, Government, self-employment, and work for many small firms. If you are not eligible under a State program, you will be covered by the Federal plan. If you qualify under both, money received from your State is subtracted from the Federal allowance.

If you are eligible under the State program it is advisable to use your state benefits first and save your Federal benefit for possible future periods of unemployment.

Under the Federal plan, you may receive 8 weeks allowance for each of the first 3 months of your active service since 16 September 1940 and 4 weeks allowance for each succeeding month to a total of 52 weeks.

It works like this:

If you served in the armed forces:	You will be allowed unemployment compensation (if you meet all requirements listed above) up to:
1 month	8 weeks
2 months	16 weeks
3 months	24 weeks
4 months	28 weeks
5 months	32 weeks
6 months	36 weeks
7 months	40 weeks

- 8 months 44 weeks
- 9 months 48 weeks
- 10 months 52 weeks
- More than 10 months 52 weeks (max.)

You may be disqualified from these allowances if you:

1. Leave suitable work voluntarily without good cause;
2. Are suspended or discharged for misconduct in the course of employment;
3. Fail to apply for suitable work, without good cause, to which you have been referred by a public employment office;
4. Do not accept suitable work when offered;
5. Fail to attend an available free training course, without good cause;
6. Stop work because of a labor dispute, unless you can show that you are not involved in the dispute.

A job is not considered suitable when the wages, hours, or conditions of work are substantially less favorable than those prevailing for similar work in the locality, or if the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lock-out, or labor dispute.

If you are self-employed in a business or profession, and things don't develop the way you hoped they would, you can get financial aid to help you pull through. If your net business earnings are less than $100 a month, you may receive the difference between your actual net earnings during the previous month and $100 up to a total of $1040 (or 10 2-5 months).

* Note that for this benefit the whole minimum 90 days must have been served after September 16, 1940.

JOB-FINDING ASSISTANCE

Congress has declared that there shall be an effective job counseling and employment placement service for veterans, and with that purpose in mind a Veterans Placement Service Board has been created to work with the United States Employment Service. This setup aims toward as many job opportunities as possible for veterans. Special aid for veterans is available through local offices of the United States Employment Service, and these agencies can refer you to vocational guidance and counseling centers where you can get free advice.

CONCLUSION

"The GI Bill of Rights" includes various other parts which are of minor importance to most prospective veterans. Many interpretations will be made from time to time of provisions of the bill, but the most important items are given here. You will have ready access to a Veterans Administration office or information center at any time for clarification of these details.

Note: All educational rights, rights to loan guarantees, and rights to readjustment allowances (unemployment compensation) are extended, for men who enlist or re-enlist in the armed forces under the Voluntary Recruitment Act of 1945 (Public 190), prior to October 6, 1946. For them, the "termination of the war" does not occur until their enlistments expire.

ELIGIBILITY FOR GI RIGHTS

Question: "Are Americans who served in the armed forces of Allied nations eligible for the benefits of the Amended GI Bill?"

Answer: Yes, the new amendments make such persons eligible the same as men who served in U. S. armed forces, but only if they have not received a similar benefit to one provided in the GI Bill from the foreign government they served.

Question: "Does a discharge 'under conditions other than dishonorable' mean any kind of a discharge except a dishonorable discharge?"

Answer: No, it does not. An honorable discharge or a discharge under honorable conditions qualifies a veteran for GI benefits; a dishonorable discharge disqualifies him; but a discharge that is neither honorable nor dishonorable may qualify him or may disqualify him, depending upon determination of the "conditions" under which he received it. The Veterans Administration determines in all such cases (such as Blue Army discharges) whether or not the discharge disqualifies the veteran from GI benefits.

Question: "Must the full 90 days of service have occurred after September 16, 1940, in order to qualify for the benefits extended by the GI Bill of Rights?"

Answer: No. A veteran may have spent 89 days in service prior to September 16, 1940, and only one day after that date, and yet be eligible. However, time spent after September 16, 1940, is the only time which may be counted for length of time the readjustment allowance (unemployment compensation) is payable.

Question: "Is a person who has been finally discharged prior to September 16, 1940, eligible for GI rights?"

Answer: No, except to job counseling and employment service, if he served during a war period and was discharged under conditions other than dishonorable.

EDUCATION

Question: "What is meant by 'ordinary school year'? Some schools continue for 11 months and other schools stop at the end of 9 months, and then there is the summer session intervening."

Answer: The Veterans Administration has ruled that "The 'ordinary school year' is defined as a period of two semesters or three quarters—not less than 30 nor more than 38 weeks in total length. Under this definition, an institution may be paid as much as $500 for each 'ordinary school year' which is completed, regardless of the time required for such completion. Thus $500 might be paid for each of four 'ordinary school years' which are completed within three 12-month periods."

Question: "Would the Veterans Administration consider a baseball school a legitimate school? I refer to one of those run by the various teams in New York. Would they give me the maintenance if I attended such a school?"

Answer: A veteran may enroll in any educational or training institution approved by the Veterans Administration. Bona fide baseball schools are acceptable. Maintenance benefits will be paid to veterans attending such a school.

Question: "Will the Government have any policy regarding certain schools that refuse enrollment to men because of race, creed, and color, particularly medical students? To what extent, if any, will the Veterans Administration plug for admission of discriminated men in the future?"

Answer: "The GI Bill of Rights" provides that a veteran may attend any school "which will accept or retain him as a student or trainee in any field or branch of knowledge which such institution finds him qualified to undertake or pursue." The decision on acceptability is left to the school.

Question: "Since correspondence schools are now included, if I take a course from such a school, will I get subsistence allowance during the course?"

Answer: No; but the school will receive the usual tuition fees.

Question: "Suppose I want to take a short, intensive training course that requires only 10 weeks, but costs $300 tuition, may I do that?"

Answer: Yes, but there will be charged against your eligible time an amount of education determined by the cost of the course; for a $300 intensive training course taken in 10 weeks, you must be eligible to receive 18 weeks of ordinary schooling. The amended law says that in such case, "there shall be charged against the veteran's period of eligibility the proportion of an ordinary school year which the cost of the course bears to $500." An ordinary school year is 30 weeks, which makes the cost $16.66 a week. A 10-week intensive course costing $300 must be divided by $16.66, which means a charge of 18 weeks against the veteran's eligible school time.

Question: "Suppose I want to take apprentice-training on the job, and the employer pays me a wage during my training; how will that affect my subsistence allowance from the government?"

Answer: If you are paid for work performed as part of your apprenticeship or training, the amount of subsistence you receive when added to the wages received cannot exceed the "standard beginning wages paid a regular workman in the same trade or occupation."

Question: "I want to work and go to school nights. Naturally, I can't take a full course in one year, if I go to classes at night. Does the GI Bill base its one year of study specifications on time or credits? If it is on credits, I could take the year's course in about two years of night school."

Answer: The educational provisions of "The GI Bill of Rights" provide that every veteran be entitled to at least one year's schooling or "the equivalent thereof in continuous part-time study." The training allowance, however, is based on the proportion of full-time study which the veteran takes.

Question: "One writer says that men over 25 are not eligible for the free schooling, while another says GIs regardless of their age can get at least one year of free schooling. Who is right?"

Answer: The amended GI Bill now makes the educational benefits available to all veterans who meet the eligibility requirements, regardless of age. Only GIs who do not meet the 90-day qualifying provision or who have not received discharges under conditions other than dishonorable are out of luck on the free schooling.

Question: "I was just 19 when I was inducted and have now been in service 3 years. How much free schooling am I entitled to?"

Answer: You are entitled to a full 4-year course of study at Government expense. You get 1 year of school by meeting the 90-day-service qualification and in addition you get added periods of free schooling measured by your length of service. The Veterans Administration has ruled that for each month of service a GI can get a calendar month of schooling. Since the average school year is made up of 9 calendar months, 27 months of service will get you 3 years of schooling. That, plus the 1 year previously mentioned, gives you a total of 4 years of schooling. Since 4 years is the maximum, the rest of your service time does not count toward free schooling. Your age has no bearing on your eligibility.

Question: "I own a farm, and when I get out of service I'd like to take advantage of both the educational and the farm-loan provisions of 'The GI Bill of Rights.' Will I be permitted to go to school and borrow money for new equipment for the farm?"

Answer: You probably will. A veteran may take advantage of more than one provision of "The GI Bill of Rights" at a time. If you can convince your bank that you can attend school and run your farm at the same time, you should have no trouble swinging the loan to buy the new equipment.

Question: "I have a wife and 3 children. When I get out I'd like to take advantage of the free schooling. How much will I receive for subsistence while attending school?"

Answer: You will get $90 a month while attending school. Every GI who attends school full time will get $65 a month. Those with dependents get $25 a month in addition. The number of dependents doesn't matter, since the maximum amount paid is $90.

Question: "Before I entered the Army I was studying advertising. Now that I am older I can see that this was a mistake and that I am best fitted for research in chemistry. Can I switch over to chemistry or must I continue the course I was studying before I entered the Army?"

Answer: You can study anything you want. Under "The GI Bill of Rights" a veteran can go to any approved school or college that will accept him as a student and study anything he likes.

LOANS

Question: "I can understand a bank's being completely satisfied with the 50 percent of a loan guaranteed by the Government, but it has been my experience that a bank will demand security or collateral for any kind of loan. Exactly what guarantee will a local bank demand for the uninsured portion of any loan?"

Answer: The first requirement in arranging for a loan is that the veteran satisfy the lender that he, the veteran, is a good risk. This means that in determining the soundness of a loan for which a federal guaranty is sought, the same general factors that surround a private transaction will apply. In what way, then, is the loan provision of "The GI Bill of Rights" of assistance to the veteran? The answer is that the lender, assured of a 50 percent guaranty by the Government, will be strongly encouraged to make the loan, even if the security does not cover the entire loan.

Question: "Two other soldiers and I want to start a business in Australia after the war. Do you think the loan privileges of 'The GI Bill of Rights' might be extended to cover a business in Australia?"

Answer: Loan privileges of "The GI Bill of Rights" will not be made to veterans planning business ventures outside the United States; the term "United States" means the several states, territories and possessions, and the District of Columbia.

Question: "If I want to buy a home when I leave the service, may I borrow the full $8000 under 'The GI Bill of Rights' without any other collateral but the mortgage on the house? The house will cost $8000. I have a job now waiting for me, but I have nothing else. Can I get a loan up to 100 percent of the value of the property? I understand that there is a limitation on mortgages of 66 percent in my state. How can I get around this?"

Answer: It is possible to get a loan with no other collateral than the mortgage on the house. In cases where state laws interfere, as above, the veteran may deal with FHA, which will take up to 80 percent of the value of the property and the Veterans Administration, which will accept the remaining 20 percent.

Question: "Can I use one loan for two purposes?"

Answer: A loan for two purposes will be made if the veteran can show evidence of ability to operate both business ventures successfully.

Question: "I have been told that cash benefits under 'The GI Bill of Rights' will be taken out of any future bonus that may be voted. Is this true?"

Answer: The original law provided that any benefits derived under "The GI Bill of Rights" shall be deducted from any future bonus, but the amended Act repeals that provision.

Question: "My wife and I are both veterans. Can we each get a loan guaranteed under 'The GI Bill of Rights' to be used in buying a house?"

Answer: You can. Each of you will be treated as an individual veteran. If you are both able to swing loans from your bank or other lending agency, you could get the loans guaranteed from the Veterans Administration.

Question: "Is it true that the Government pays all the interest on the loans we get under 'The GI Bill of Rights'?"

Answer: No, it is not. During the first year of the loan the Veterans Administration will pay the interest on that part of the loan which it has guaranteed. Thus, if you get a $4000 loan, the Veterans Administration will pay the interest on $2000 or $80 (at 4 percent, the maximum rate you may pay). You will have to pay the rest of the interest yourself.

Question: "When I get out, I'd like to buy a farm and turn it over to a tenant to run. Meanwhile I want to go back to my own business and let the tenant run the farm for me. Will I be able to get a farm-loan guaranty if I do that?"

Answer: You will not. A veteran can get a farm loan guaranteed only if he personally directs and operates the farm. You can, of course, hire all the help you need, but you will not be permitted to operate the farm through someone else. You need not actually live on the farm, but you must live near enough to personally direct and supervise the operation of the farm.

Question: "I own a farm which my younger brother and sister have been running in my absence. They tell me that local taxes have been accumulating at a fast clip. Will I be permitted to borrow money under 'The GI Bill of Rights' to pay off the taxes?"

Answer: You will. You may get either a farm loan or a home loan and use the money to pay off taxes on your property. The same thing applies to taxes on a town or city home owned by a GI.

UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION

Question: "Under the unemployment allowances would a veteran who had gone into farming and was earning less than $100 per calendar month be paid the difference between his net earnings and $100? His earnings can't be computed on a monthly basis."

Answer: Unemployment allowances (called "Readjustment Allowance" in the law) are paid veterans engaged in farming up to the time of their first crop. Following the first crop, the earnings of the veteran are computed on a yearly basis.

Question: "The GI Bill" says that a veteran can get only one benefit at a time. Suppose a man has taken advantage of the loan privileges of the Bill. Then he finds himself out of a job. It would seem that he gets no unemployment compensation. Is this true?"

Answer: According to "The GI Bill of Rights" a veteran is entitled to only one MONETARY benefit at a time. Loan assistance is NOT considered a monetary benefit. In the situation outlined above the veteran is eligible for unemployment allowance even though he had arranged a loan with the government. But a veteran cannot get a subsistence allowance while going to school AND unemployment allowances; they are both monetary benefits.

Question: "I have been told that in order to get unemployment pay allowed under 'The GI Bill of Rights,' I must be willing to take a job even if it is in a factory where there is a strike. Is that right?"

Answer: It is not. You do not have to accept a job which is available directly as a result of a strike, lock-out or other labor dispute. Your refusal to accept such a job will not affect your right to the unemployment pay.

Question: "When I am discharged I expect to go into a business of my own. If the business does not succeed, will I be able to get any money under the unemployment provisions of 'The GI Bill of Rights'?"

Answer: If your business folds up and you are not earning any money, you will get $20 a week. Should your business fall off so that you earn less than $100 during any calendar month you will get the difference between your net earnings and $100, up to 10 2-5 months (or $1040).

Question: "Will the Readjustment Allowance be paid each week for the number of weeks to which a veteran is entitled?"

Answer: It depends upon the practice of paying unemployment compensation in your State; most States pay weekly; some pay bi-weekly; some pay monthly. You will get your federal Readjustment Allowance through the State setup and be paid in whatever way the State pays its unemployment compensation.

Hospitalization, Claims and Procedures

Sec. 100. The Veterans' Administration is hereby declared to be an essential war agency and entitled to priority equal to the highest granted any department or agency of the Government in personnel, service, space, equipment, supplies, and material under any laws, Executive orders, and regulations pertaining to priorities. Sec. 101. The Administrator of Veterans' Affairs and the Federal Board of Hospitalization are hereby authorized and directed to expedite and complete the construction of additional hospital facilities for war veterans, and to enter into agreements and contracts for the use by or transfer to the Veterans' Administration of suitable Army and Navy hospitals after termination of hostilities in the present war or after such institutions are no longer needed by the armed services; and the Administrator of Veterans Affairs is hereby authorized and directed to establish necessary regional offices, sub-offices, branch offices, contact units or other subordinate offices in centers of population where there is no Veterans' Administration facility or where such a facility is not readily available or accessible: Provided, That there is hereby authorized to be appropriated the sum of $500,000,000 for the construction of additional hospital facilities.

ties, or for the transfer, without reimbursement of appropriations, of facilities, supplies, equipment, or material necessary and proper for authorized care for veterans, except that at no time shall the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs enter into any agreement which will result in a permanent reduction of Veterans' Administration hospital and domiciliary beds below the number now established or approved, plus the estimated number required to meet the load of eligibles under laws administered by the Veterans' Administration, or in any way subordinate or transfer the operation of the Veterans' Administration to any other agency of the Government.

Nothing in the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, or any other Act, shall be construed to prevent the transfer or detail of any commissioned, appointed or enlisted personnel from the armed forces to the Veterans' Administration subject to agreements between the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy and the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs: Provided, That no such detail shall be made or extended beyond six months after the termination of the war.

(b) The necessary regulations shall be promulgated by the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy jointly with the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs to accomplish the purpose of this section, and in the preparation of such regulations the national officer of each of such veterans' organizations who is responsible for claims and rehabilitation activities shall be consulted. The commanding officer of each such military or naval installation shall cooperate fully with such authorized representatives in the providing of available space and equipment for such representatives.

(c) The Administrator is further authorized at his discretion and under such regulations as he may prescribe to furnish, if available, necessary space and suitable office facilities for the use of paid full-time representatives of such organizations.

Reviewing Authority

Sec. 300. The discharge or dismissal by reason of the sentence of a general court martial of any person from the military or naval forces, or the discharge of any such person on the ground that he was a conscientious objector who refused to perform military duty or refused to wear the uniform or otherwise to comply with lawful orders of competent military authority, or as a deserter, or of an officer by the acceptance of his resignation for the good of the service, shall bar all rights of such person, based upon the period of service from which he is so discharged or dismissed, under any laws administered by the Veterans' Administration: Provided, That in the case of any such person, if it be established to the satisfaction of the Administrator that at the time of the commission of the offense such person was insane, he shall not be precluded from the benefits to which he is otherwise entitled under the laws administered by the Veterans' Administration: And provided further, That this section shall not apply to any war risk, Government (converted) or national service life-insurance policy.

Sec. 301. The Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy, after conference with the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs, are authorized and directed to establish in the War and Navy Departments, respectively, boards of review composed of five members each, whose duties shall be to review, on their own motion or upon the request of a former officer or enlisted man or woman or, if deceased, by the surviving spouse, next of kin, or legal representative, the type and nature of his discharge or dismissal, except a discharge or dismissal by reason of the sentence of a general court martial. Such review shall be based upon all available records of the service department relating to the person requesting such review, and such other evidence as may be presented by such person. Witnesses shall be permitted to present testimony either in person or by affidavit and the person requesting review shall be allowed to appear before such board in person or by counsel: Provided, That the term "counsel" as used in this section shall be considered to include, among other, accredited representatives of veterans' organizations recognized by the Veterans' Administration under section 200 of the Act of June 29, 1936 (Public Law Numbered 844, Seventy-fourth Congress). Such board shall have authority, except in the case of a discharge or dismissal by reason of the sentence of a general court martial, to change, correct, or modify any discharge or dismissal, and to issue a new discharge in accord with the facts presented to the board. The Articles of War and the Articles for the Government of the Navy are hereby amended to authorize the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy to establish such boards of review, the findings thereof to be final subject only to review by the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy: Provided, That no request for review by such board of a discharge or dismissal under the provisions of this section shall be valid unless filed within fifteen years after such discharge or dismissal or within fifteen years after the effective date of this Act, whichever may be the later.

Sec. 302. (a) The Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy and the Secretary of the Treasury are authorized and directed to establish, from time to time, boards of review composed of five commissioned officers, two of whom shall be selected from the Medical Corps of the Army or Navy, or from the Public Health Service, as the case may be. It shall be the duty of any such board to review, at the request of any officer retired or released from active service, without pay, for physical disability pursuant to the decision of a retiring board, board of medical survey, or disposition board, the findings and decisions of such board. Such review shall be based upon all available service records relating to the officer requesting such review, and such other evidence as may be presented by such officer. Witnesses shall be permitted to present testimony either in person or by affidavit, and the officer requesting review shall be allowed to appear before such board of review in person or by counsel. In carrying out its duties under this section such board of review shall have the same powers as exercised by, or vested in, the board whose findings and decision are being reviewed. The proceedings and decision of each such board of review affirming or reversing the decision of any such retiring board, board of medical survey, or disposition board, shall be transmitted to the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, or the Secretary of the Treasury, as the case may be, and shall be laid by him before the President for his approval or disapproval and orders in the case.

"Part VIII

"1. Any person who served in the active military or naval service on or after September 16, 1940, and prior to the termination of the present war, and who shall have been discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable, and who either shall have served ninety days or more, exclusive of any period he was assigned for a course of education or training under the Army specialized training program or the Navy college training program, which course was a continuation of his civilian course and was pursued to completion, or as a cadet or midshipman at one of the service academies, or shall have been discharged or released from active service by reason of an actual service incurred injury or disability, shall be eligible for and entitled to receive education or training under this part: Provided, That such course shall be initiated not later than four years after either the date of his discharge or the termination of the present war, whichever is the later: Provided further, That no such education or training shall be afforded beyond nine years after the termination of the present war.

"2. Any such eligible person shall be entitled to education or training at an approved educational or training institution for a period of one year plus the time such person was in the active service on or after September 16, 1940, and before the termination of the war, exclusive of any period he was assigned for a course of education or training under the Army Specialized Training Program or the Navy College Training Program, which course was a continuation of his civilian course and was pursued to completion, or as a cadet or midshipman at one of the service academies, but in no event shall the total period of education or training exceed four years: Provided, That his work continues to be satisfactory throughout the period, according to the regularly prescribed standards and practices of the institution: Provided further, That wherever the period of eligibility ends during a quarter or semester and after a major part of such quarter or semester has expired, such period shall be extended to the termination of such unexpired quarter or semester.

"3 (a) Such person shall be eligible for and entitled to such course of education or training full time or the equivalent thereof in part-time training, as he may elect and at any approved educational or training institution at which he chooses to enroll, whether or not located in the State in which he resides, which will accept or retain him as a student or trainee in any field or branch of knowledge which such institution finds him qualified to undertake or pursue: Provided, That, for reasons satisfactory to the Administrator, he may change a course of instruction: And provided further, That any such course of education or training may be discontinued at any time, if it is found by the Administrator that, according to the regularly prescribed standards and practices of the institution, the conduct or progress of such person is unsatisfactory.

"(b) Any such eligible person may apply for a short, intensive post-graduate, or training course of less than 30 weeks: Provided, That the Administrator shall have the authority to contract with approved institutions for such courses if he finds that the agreed cost of such courses is reasonable and fair: Provided further, That (1) the limitation of paragraph 5 shall not prevent the payment of such agreed rates, but there shall be charged against the veteran's period of eligibility the proportion of an ordinary school year which the cost of the course bears to $500, and (2) not in excess of $500 shall be paid for any such course.

"(c) Any such eligible person may apply for a course of instruction by correspondence without any subsistence allowance: Provided, That the Administrator shall have authority to contract with approved institutions for such courses if he finds that the agreed cost of such courses is reasonable and fair: Provided further, (1) That the provisions of paragraph 5 shall not apply to correspondence courses; (2) that one-fourth of the elapsed time in following such course shall be charged against the veteran's period of eligibility; and (3) that the total amount payable for a correspondence course or courses for any veteran shall not exceed $500: And provided further, That nothing herein shall be construed to preclude the use of approved correspondence courses as a part of institutional or job training, subject to regulations prescribed by the Administrator.

"4. From time to time the Administrator shall secure from the appropriate agency of each State a list of the educational and training institutions (including industrial establishments), within such jurisdiction, which are qualified and equipped to furnish education or training (including apprenticeship and refresher or retraining training), which institutions, together with such additional ones as may be recognized and approved by the Administrator, shall be deemed qualified and approved to furnish education or training to such persons as shall enroll under this part: Provided, That wherever there are established State apprenticeship agencies expressly charged by State laws to administer apprentice training, whenever possible, the Administrator shall utilize such existing facilities and services in training on the job when such training is of one year's duration or more.

"5. The Administrator shall pay to the educational or training institution, for each person enrolled in full time or part time course of education or training, the customary cost of tuition, and such laboratory, library, health, infirmary, and other similar fees as are customarily charged, and may pay for books, supplies, equipment, and other necessary expenses, exclusive of board, lodging, other living expenses, and travel, as are generally required for the successful pursuit and completion of the course by other students in the institution: Provided, That in no event shall such payments, with respect to any person, exceed $500 for an ordinary school year, unless the veteran elects to have such customary charges paid in excess of such limitation, in which event there shall be charged against his period of eligibility the proportion of an ordinary school year which such excess bears to $500: Provided, further, That no payments shall be made to institutions, business or other establishments furnishing apprentice training on the job: And provided further, That any institution may apply to the Administrator for an adjustment of tuition and the Administrator, if he finds that the customary tuition charges are insufficient to permit the institution to furnish education or training to eligible veterans, or inadequate compensation therefor, may provide for the payment of such fair and reasonable compensation as will not exceed the estimated cost of teaching personnel and supplies for instruction: and may in like manner readjust such payments from time to time."

Effective on the first day of the first calendar month subsequent to the date of enactment of this [amendatory] Act, the first sentence of paragraph 6 of Part VIII of such Regulation is amended to read as follows:

"7. Any such person eligible for the benefits of this part, who is also eligible for the benefit of part VII, may elect either benefit, or may be provided an approved combination of such courses: Provided, That the total period of any such combined courses shall not exceed the maximum period or limitations under the part affording the greater period of eligibility.

"8. No department, agency, or officer of the United States, in carrying out the provisions of this part shall exercise any supervision or control, whatsoever, over any State educational agency, or any educational or training institution: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent any department, agency, or officer of the United States from exercising any supervision or control which such department, agency, or officer is authorized, by existing provisions of law, to exercise over any Federal educational or training institution, or to prevent the furnishing of education or training under this part in any institution over which supervision or control is exercised by such other department, agency, or officer under authority of existing provisions of law.

"9. The Administrator of Veterans' Affairs is authorized and empowered to administer this title, and, insofar as he deems practicable, shall utilize existing facilities and services of Federal and State departments and agencies on the basis of mutual agreements with them. cil or the Federal Apprentice Training Service established in accordance with Public, Numbered 308, Seventy-fifth Congress, or any agency in the executive branch of the Federal Government authorized under other laws to supervise such training."

"12. For the purposes of this part, the present war shall not be considered as terminating, in the case of any individual, before the termination of such individual's first period of enlistment or reenlistment contracted within one year after the date of the enactment of the Armed Forces Voluntary Recruitment Act of 1945."

Sec. 401. Section 3, Public Law Numbered 16, Seventy-eighth Congress, is hereby amended to read as follows:

For the purpose there is hereby created to cooperate with and assist the United States Employment Service, as established by the provisions of the Act of June 6, 1933, a Veterans' Placement Service Board, which shall consist of the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs, as Chairman, the Director of the National Selective Service System, and the Administrator of the Federal Security Agency, or whoever may have the responsibility of administering the functions of the United States Employment Service. Any funds appropriated pursuant to this special item as contained in the budget of the United States Employment Service shall not be available for any purpose other than that for which they were appropriated, except with the approval of the Board.

(b) The War Manpower Commission shall from its current appropriation allocate and make available sufficient funds to carry out the provisions of this title during the current fiscal year.

Sec. 606. The term "United States Employment Service" as used in this title means that Bureau created by the provisions of the Act of June 6, 1933, or such successor agencies as from time to time shall perform its functions and duties, as now performed by the War Manpower Commission.

Sec. 607. The term "veteran" as used in this title shall mean a person who served in the active service of the armed forces during a period of war in which the United States has been, or is, engaged, and who has been discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable.

TITLE V

Chapter VII

Sec. 700. (a) Any person who shall have served in the active military or naval service of the United States at any time after September 16, 1940, and prior to the termination of the present war, and who shall have been discharged or released from active service under conditions other than dishonorable after active service of 90 days or more, or by reason of an injury or disability incurred in service in line of duty, shall be entitled in accordance with the provisions of this title and regulations issued by the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs pursuant thereto, to receive a readjustment allowance as provided herein for each week of unemployment, not to exceed a total of fifty-two weeks, which (1) begins after the first Sunday of the third calendar month after the date of enactment hereof, and (2) occurs not later than two years after discharge or release or the termination of the war, whichever is the later date: Provided, That no such allowance shall be paid for any period for which he receives increased pension under part VII of Veterans Regulation 1 (a) or a subsistence allowance under part VIII of such regulation: Provided further, That no readjustment allowance shall be payable for any week commencing more than five years after the termination of hostilities in the present war.

(b) Such person shall be deemed eligible to receive an allowance for any week of unemployment if claim is made for such allowance and the Administrator finds with respect to such week that—

(1) the person is residing in the United States at the time of such claim;

(2) the person is completely unemployed, having performed no service and received no wages, or is partially unemployed in that services have been performed for less than a full work-week and the wages for the week are less than the allowance under this title plus $3;

(3) the person is registered with and continues to report to a public employment office, in accordance with its regulations;

(4) the person is able to work and available for suitable work: Provided, That no claimant shall be considered ineligible in any period of continuous unemployment for failure to comply with the provisions of this subparagraph if such failure is due to an illness or disability which occurs after the commencement of such period.

Chapter VIII Disqualifications

Sec. 800. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 700, a claimant shall be disqualified from receiving an allowance if—

(1) he leaves suitable work voluntarily, without good cause, or is suspended or discharged for misconduct in the course of employment;

(2) he, without good cause, fails to apply for suitable work to which he has been referred by a public employment office, or to accept suitable work when offered him; or

(3) he, without good cause, does not attend an available free training course as required by regulations issued pursuant to the provisions of this title.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 700, a claimant shall also be disqualified from receiving an allowance for any week with respect to which it is found that his unemployment is due to a stoppage of work which exists because of a labor dispute at the factory, establishment, or other premises at which he is or was last employed; Provided, That this subsection shall not apply if it is shown that—

(1) he is not participating in or directly interested in the labor dispute which causes the stoppage of work, and

(2) he does not belong to a grade or class of workers of which, immediately before the commencement of the stoppage there were members employed at the premises at which the stoppage occurs, any of whom are participating in or directly interested in the dispute; Provided, however, That if in any case separate branches of work which are commonly conducted as separate business in separate premises, are conducted in separate departments of the same premises, each such department shall, for the purposes of this subsection, be deemed to be a separate factory, establishment, or other premises.

(c) (1) If a claimant is disqualified under the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, he shall be disqualified to receive any readjustment allowance for the week in which the cause of his disqualification occurred and for not more than four immediately following weeks.

(2) In addition to the disqualification prescribed in paragraph (1) above, the Administrator may, in cases of successive disqualifications under the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, extend the period of disqualification for such additional period as the Administrator may prescribe, but not to exceed eight additional weeks in the case of any one disqualification.

(d) (1) In determining under subsection (a) of this section the suitability of work or the existence of good cause with respect to a claimant, the conditions and standards prescribed by the unemployment compensation laws of the State in which he files his claim shall govern: Provided, That the Administrator may prescribe conditions and standards for applicants in any State having no applicable statute.

(2) In determining under subsection (a) of this section the suitability of work, no work shall be deemed suitable for an individual if—

(A) the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lock-out, or other labor dispute; or

(B) the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to him than those prevailing for similar work in the locality.

Chapter IX Amount Of Allowances And Payment

Sec. 900. (a) The allowance for a week shall be $20 less that part of the wages payable to him for such week which is in excess of $3: Provided, That where the allowance is not a multiple of $1, it shall be computed to the next highest multiple of $1.

(b) The number of weeks of allowances to which each eligible veteran shall be entitled shall be determined as follows: For each calendar month or major fraction thereof of active service during the period stated in section 700 the veteran shall be entitled to four weeks of allowances, but in no event to exceed the maximum provided in section 700; Provided, That the allowance for the qualifying ninety days service shall be eight weeks for each such month.

Sec. 901. (a) Readjustment allowances shall be paid at the intervals prescribed by the unemployment compensation law of the State in which the claim was made: Provided, That if none are so prescribed readjustment allowance shall be paid at such reasonable intervals as may be determined by the Administrator.

(b) Any allowances remaining unpaid upon the death of a claimant shall not be considered a part of the assets of the estate of the claimant, or liable for the payment of his debts, or subject to any administration of his estate, and the Administrator may make payment thereof to such person or persons he finds most equitably entitled thereto.

Sec. 902. (a) Any person qualified under subsection (a) of section 700, and residing in the United States who is self-employed for profit in an independent establishment, trade, business, profession, or other vocation shall be eligible for readjustment allowances under this title within the time periods applicable, and not in excess of the total amount provided in this title.

(b) Upon application by the veteran showing, in accordance with rules prescribed by the Administrator, that he has been fully engaged in such self-employment and that his net earnings in a trade, business, profession, or vocation, have been less than $100 in the previous calendar month, the veteran shall be entitled to receive, subject to the limitations of this title as to time and amount, the difference (adjusted to the next highest multiple of $1), be-between $100 and his net earnings for such month.

(c) Payment of such allowance shall be made by the Administrator to each eligible veteran at the time and in the manner other payments are made directly to veterans by the Administrator.

(d) Subsection (b) of section 700 and section 800 shall not apply in determining the eligibility for allowances of a claimant under this section.

Chapter X Adjustment Of Duplicate Benefits

Sec. 1000. Where an allowance is payable to a claimant under this title and where, for the same period, either an allowance or benefit is received under any Federal or State unemployment or disability compensation law, the amount received or accrued from such other source shall be subtracted from the allowance payable under this title (except that this section shall not apply to pension, compensation, or retired pay paid by the Veterans' Administration); and the resulting allowances, if not a multiple of $1, shall be readjusted to the next higher multiple of $1.

Chapter XI Administration

Sec. 1100. (a) The Administrator of Veterans' Affairs is authorized to administer this title and shall insofar as possible, utilize existing facilities and services of Federal and State departments or agencies on the basis of mutual agreements with such departments or agencies. Such agreements shall provide for the filing of claims for readjustment allowances with the Administrator through established public employment offices and State unemployment-compensation agencies. Such agencies, through agreement, shall also be utilized in the processing, adjustment, and determination of such claims and the payment of such allowances. To facilitate the carrying out of agreements with State departments or agencies and to assist in the discharge of the Administrator's duties under this title, a representative of the Administrator, who shall be a war veteran separated from active service under honorable conditions and who at the time of appointment shall have been a bona fide resident of the State for at least two years, shall be located in each participating State department or agency.

(b) The Administrator, consistent with the provisions of this title, shall prescribe such rules and regulations and require such records and reports as he may find necessary to carry out its purposes: Provided, however, That cooperative rules and regulations relating to the performance by Federal and State departments, or agencies, of functions under agreements made therewith, may be made by the Administrator after consultation and advisement with representatives of such departments or agencies.

(c) The Administrator may delegate to any officer or employee of his own or of any cooperating department or agency of any State such of his powers and duties, except that of prescribing rules and regulations, as the Administrator may consider necessary and proper to carry out the purposes of this title.

(d) Allowances paid by the cooperating State agencies shall be repaid upon certification by the Administrator. The Secretary of the Treasury, through the Division of Disbursement of the Treasury, and without the necessity of audit and settlement by the General Accounting Office, shall pay monthly to the departments, agencies, or individuals designated, the amounts so certified.

(e) The Administrator shall from time to time certify to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment in advance or otherwise such sums as he estimates to be necessary to compensate any Federal department or agency for its administrative expenses under this title. Such sums shall cover periods of no longer than six months.

(f) The Administrator shall also from time to time certify to the Social Security Board such State departments or agencies as may be participating in the administration of this title, and the amount of administrative expense incurred by a State under agreements made pursuant to this section. Upon such certification the Social Security Board shall certify such amount to the Secretary of the Treasury, in addition to the amount, if any, payable by said Board under the provisions of section 302 (a) of the Social Security Act, as amended, and the additional amount so certified shall be paid to each State by the Secretary of the Treasury out of the appropriation for the Veterans' Administration.

(g) Any money paid to any cooperating agency or person, which is not used for the purpose for which it was paid shall, upon termination of the period covered by such payment or the agreement with such agency or person, be returned to the Treasury and credited to the current appropriation for carrying out the purpose of this title, or, if returned after the expiration of period covered by this title, shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

Sec. 1101. (a) No person designated by the Administrator as a certifying officer shall, in the absence of gross negligence, or intent to defraud the United States, be liable with respect to any payment by him under this title if it was based upon a voucher signed by a certifying officer designated by the Administrator.

(b) No disbursing officer shall, in the absence of gross negligence, or intent to defraud the United States, be liable with respect to any payment by him under this title if it was based upon a voucher signed by a certified officer designated by the Administrator.

Sec. 1102. Any claimant whose claim for an allowance has been denied shall be entitled to a fair hearing before an impartial tribunal of the State agency or such other agency as may be designated by the Administrator. The representative of the Administrator located in each State shall be the final appellate authority in regard to contested claims arising in such State, subject to review by the Administrator.

Sec. 1103. In the case of any veterans eligible under the provisions of this title who either at the time of application for the benefits herein provided is a "qualified employe" as defined in section 3 of the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act, as amended, or was last employed prior to such application by an employer as defined in section 1 (a) of the said Act, claim may be made through an office operated by or a facility designated as a free employment office by the Railroad Retirement Board pursuant to the provisions of said Act. In such cases, the conditions and standards as to the suitability of work or existence of good cause, the intervals for making claim for and payment of benefits, and the administrative and appellate procedures prescribed by or under said Act shall govern, if not in conflict with the provisions of this title, the appellate procedures being subject to final appeal to the Administrator. In such cases, a reference in this title to a cooperating State agency shall be deemed to include the Railroad Retirement Board.

Chapter XII Decisions And Procedures

Sec. 1200. The authority to issue subpoenas and provisions for invoking aid of the courts of the United States in case of disobedience thereto, to make investigations, and to administer oaths, as contained in title III of the Act of June 29, 1936 (49 Stat. 2033-34; U. S. C., title III of 133), shall be applicable in the administration of this title.

Chapter XIII Penalties

Sec. 1300. Any claimant who knowingly accepts an allowance to which he is not entitled shall be ineligible to receive any further allowance under this title.

Sec. 1301. (a) Whoever for the purpose of causing an increase in any allowance authorized under this title, or for the purpose of causing any allowance to be paid where none is authorized under this title, shall make or cause to be made any false statement or representation as to any wages paid or received, or who makes or causes to be made any false statement of a material fact in any claim for any allowance under this title, or whoever makes or causes to be made any false statement, representation, affidavit, or document in connection with such claim, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both.

(b) Whoever shall obtain or receive any money, check, or allowance under this title, without being entitled thereto and with intent to defraud the United States, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

Veterans Going Back to School Answer Key

Go to <http://www.nationalww2museum.org/learn/education/for-students/national-history-day/gi-bill-of-rights.pdf> and read the Education section of The GI Bill of Rights and How it Works published in 1944. Then read the same section of The Amended GI Bill of Rights and How it Works from 1945. Compare the two pamphlets and then complete the following questions.

	1944	1945
What is the minimum number of days you had to serve on active duty to be eligible for educational benefits?	90	90
How many years after the end of the war are benefits available?	7	9
How much will the Government pay the school per year?	$500	$500
What does this fee cover?	Tuition, laboratory, library, health, infirmary, and other similar fees; books, supplies, equipment, and other necessary expenses, not including living and traveling expenses.	Tuition, laboratory, library, health, infirmary, and other similar fees; books, supplies, equipment, and other necessary expenses, not including living and traveling expenses.
What does the Government give as a living allowance if you are single?	$50	$65
What does the Government give as a living allowance if you have one or more dependents?	$75	$90
What is the maximum number of years the Government will pay veterans for their education?	4 years	4 years
Will the Government pay for apprenticeships or other on-the-job training courses?	yes	yes

Why do you think the various changes were made?

The Government was very concerned about ensuring that the 16 million veterans of WWII would have access to a job or education after the war rather than face massive unemployment. Extending the length of time educational benefits could be used and providing a larger living allowance for veterans and their rapidly growing families encouraged more veterans to take advantage of this particular aspect of the GI Bill.

Veterans and Home Loans

The GI Bill of Rights and How it Works explains that the government will guarantee one-half of a loan (up to $2,000) made by a bank for the purpose of buying or constructing homes, farms, farm equipment, or business property. On the guaranteed part of the loan the government promises to pay the interest for the first year as long as it is not over 4 percent. The loan must be repaid in full within twenty years. The government also promises that if you are unable to repay the loan in full it will pay back fifty percent of the loan up to $2,000.

With these facts in mind and the charts below, complete the following math problems.

2. There were sixteen million veterans after World War II and between 1944 and 1952 they received 2.4 million home loans. What percentage of veterans received home loans?

3. In the 1940s, how much less (in percentages) did an average house in Mississippi cost compared to an average house in the United States? What about in the 1950s?

Post-War Housing Fast Facts

- Nine million servicemen and women returned to civilian life after World War II. This resulted in an all-time-high marriage rate in 1946 followed by all-time-high birth rates through 1964. Today, people who were born during this period are known as Baby Boomers.
- Approximately five million housing units were needed immediately after World War II, yet housing availability was at an all-time low. A lack of money during the Great Depression and a lack of materials during and immediately after the war had brought the home construction industry to a standstill. This caused many returning servicemen and their new families to move in with relatives, friends, and even strangers. They lived in all manners of housing from subdivided houses and sub-let apartments, to old military barracks and Quonset Huts.
- Before the war, many Americans never could have afforded to own their own home. New government policies encouraged banks to make home loans by insuring them against financial loss and provided mortgages of twenty or thirty years. The GI Bill also guaranteed servicemen mortgages and the chance to buy a home with no down payment.
- In the 1950s, approximately six million new single family homes were built, accounting for eighty-one percent of all new residential construction.
- The post-war dream homes and the families that built them demanded space. The homes were bigger than ever before, on large, irregularly shaped lots, physically separate from neighboring homes, and further from city centers.
- The grid-pattern of streets found in so many planned cities (including Jackson, Mississippi) were abandoned in favor of long blocks and curving streets that followed the natural lay-of-the-land.
- The post-war period not only saw an increase in homeownership but also car ownership. During the 1950s, car ownership increased from 39 million to 74 million. By 1960, eighty percent of families owned at least one car and fifteen percent owned two or more. Carports became pivotal elements of new homes.
- The new interstate highway system was begun in 1956 and allowed Americans to travel longer distances at higher speeds. The convenience of entrance and exit ramps into and around cities meant that individuals could work in the city, live in the new suburbs, and quickly and easily commute between the two.
- The price of gas remained low. During World War II, gas cost between eighteen and twenty-one cents per gallon. The price increased by one or two cents every few years, costing thirty cents per gallon in 1964 (the final year of the Baby Boom). The steadily low cost of gas allowed people to afford a daily commute between home and work.

LONG-WAITED GI LOTS PROMISED NEXT SPRING

Applications from war veterans desiring to purchase residential building sites in the state-owned GI subdivision on Highway 51 north of Jackson will be received by the State Building Commission until the deadline of December 31 of this year, it was announced Friday.

No application filed after that date will be considered, the State Building Commission has notified Stokes V. Robertson, Jr., chairman of the Veterans' Advisory committee.

Created by Legislative Act over two years ago to relieve the emergency in housing returned war veterans, GI Subdivision with 309 lots is located along U. S. Highway 51 and on both sides of the Tripps Crossing Road east of the highway.

The building sites, each lot with a frontage of 75 feet and a depth of 150 feet, were laid out by the State Highway Department. Contract for hard-surfacing new streets in the subdivision will be let immediately following winter weather for completion in the spring.

The estimate sale price of each lot to a veteran will be between $750 and $1000, figured on the basis of subdivision costs in providing streets and utilities on the state-owned property. Laying of sewers and water mains is almost complete.

Development of the GI Subdivision will be completed in the spring in time for veterans to build their homes in the summer.

Similar to the lottery-draft system, the method of determining who will secure lots will be a public drawing with the names of all applicants in one jar and the lot numbers in another. The name of an applicant will be drawn and then a lot number, and these will be paired.

Proper printed forms are available to veterans at the State Building Commission office on the fourth floor of the New Capitol.

The form should be properly filled according to requirements set up in the Legislative Act and sworn to before an officer authorized to administer oaths. A certified copy of the veteran's discharge should be attached to the sworn application.

Other provisions of the Legislative Act require each veteran making application to present satisfactory evidence of his bona fide intent to build his home thereon, and that no lot can be resold within 18 months after the date of purchase except to an honorably discharged veteran at a price not to exceed the original purchase price of the lot, the cost of the improvements thereon, plus five per cent.

Prices Fixed For Veterans' Lots; 281 Now On Priority List; Drawing Set Sept. 22

Price tags ranging from $400 to $1,500 each were announced Saturday by the state Building Commission for the 307 veterans lots to be sold on the Tripp's Crossing subdivision three miles north of Jackson.

The commission set September 22 as the date for drawing of the lots and named a list of 281 veterans on the first-priority group.

A number sufficiently large to boost this figure to equal the number of lots will be added following a meeting on September 21, when some of those veterans not included on the priority list will be given a hearing.

A total of 360 veterans have made application. The priority group was taken upon recommendation by a special committee representing all veterans' organizations in the city.

Priorities were given those veterans deemed to be most in need of housing facilities. The September 22 drawing will determine which lots the individual veterans will be permitted to purchase.

W. B. Fontaine, secretary of the commission, said veterans on the priority list will be permitted to make exchanges of lots by mutual consent.

"In other words," he explained, "if one veteran draws a lot valued at $1,300 and would prefer a $750 lot, he may trade for one in that level, provided he finds another veteran desirous of making the exchange."

The price set by the commission was well above that suggested by the veterans committee, headed by Stokes Robertson, Jr., of Jackson. The veterans' committee had recommended a "top" of $1,000 for the most expensive lots.

Fontaine said the prices set represented pre-war land values for the lots plus the cost of improvements carried out by the state Highway Department.

These improvements included construction of street, water, sewerage, gas and other facilities and reached an overall total of $248,336.86. Individual improvement cost ranged from $373.90 for the cheapest lot to $932.72 for those in the $1,500 bracket.

The commission divided the 307 lots into the following classifications:

117 lots to be sold at $1,500 each; five at $1,400 each; 53 lots at $1,300 each; 14 lots at $1,200 each; 57 lots

(Turn to Page 8, Column 1)

PRICES ON VETS' LOTS FIXED, DATE FOR DRAWING SET

at $1,050 each; 10 lots at $950 each; 25 lots at $850 each; 14 lots at $750 each; 11 lots at $500 each and one lot at $400.

Of the total of 307 lots, 246 were listed at prices above $1,000 each.

Secretary Fontaine pointed out that veterans whose names were not carried on the first priority list are not necessarily barred from purchase of a lot.

Many of those listed may for one reason or another decide against buying a tract, which would leave openings for those now on the "reverse" list.

Another factor is apparently the high cost of the tracts, which many veterans have admitted are greater than they had planned on paying.

Following the September 22 drawing, they will be given 30 days in which to make their purchases, the full amount of which must be paid in cash.

Assemble Materials For First House In Tripps Crossing Area

Materials for construction of the expected first house to be built for a veteran in the new Tripps Crossing subdivision are being assembled, and it is expected that work will commence with the next week or two, according to the Ins-Cem Company, builders.

The house will be constructed on a lot purchased from the State by Charles M. Hills of The Clarion-Ledger staff.

Lewis Culley, official of the firm of builders, states that the three bedroom insulated concrete structure can be erected within a period of five weeks after start of work.

Of especial interest is the fact that the house is practically fire-proof, thus drawing low insurance rates and is also given to low upkeep costs. There is practically nothing to deteriorate in the construction, according to the builders.

Also interesting is the fact that a "lock and key" job is delivered to the lot owner.

Mr. Hill, a veteran of the U. S. Marine Corps, purchased his lot at Tripps Crossing on the first day that they came up for sale. He has filed the first FHA-GI loan commitment papers, and it is expected that his home will be the first completed in the subdivision.

The house will be constructed of insulated concrete, and will be largely impervious to heat or cold.

It will be placed on a lot 75 feet by 152 feet depth. The house will be 53 feet wide and 29 feet deep. A 41-foot long front porch with wrought iron grill posts will run across the front of the house and the garage will be on the south side of the house which is to face east. All built under a single roof, the garage will be backed by a screened service porch.

The living room will extend through the center of the house as a 23-foot-deep, and 15-foot-wide living and dining combination. The kitchen-breakfast nook combination will be to the back, adjoining the large dining space, and will be an overall 19.4 feet by 8.5 feet.

Also to the back will be a corner bedroom 11 x 12 feet and a front corner bedroom will be 14 x 11.8. The third bedroom, also to the front will be 11x11 feet.

A hallway 12 ft. long and 3.5 feet wide will run from the living room to the back bedroom. All three bedrooms will open into the hall, as will the bathroom door and a kitchen door.

There will be sliding door, walk-in closets in each bedroom.

A doorway leads from the breakfast nook into the dining space.

There will be a doorway from the dining space to the service porch, and a door from the service porch to the rear of the garage. Another door leads off the service porch to the backyard and another from the breakfast nook to the backyard.

The front entrance will be directly into the large living room on the left corner going in.

There will be a large double Fenestra steel frame window to the front of the living room, and large size steel windows for the two front bedrooms. Smaller side windows will be installed in the two end bedrooms on the north side of the house, and there will be a regulation window to the back of the rear bedroom. The bath and kitchen will have slightly smaller windows and another large double window will back up the dining space at the rear of the living room. There will be one south window, to the garage. The garage will have overhead slide doors.

Living room and dining space floors will be parkay block oak covered, and the kitchen, hall, bath and three bedrooms will have asphalt tile floorings of colors selected by the owner. All rooms will be tinted to suit the owners, as will the exterior of the house, which will be tinted stucco.

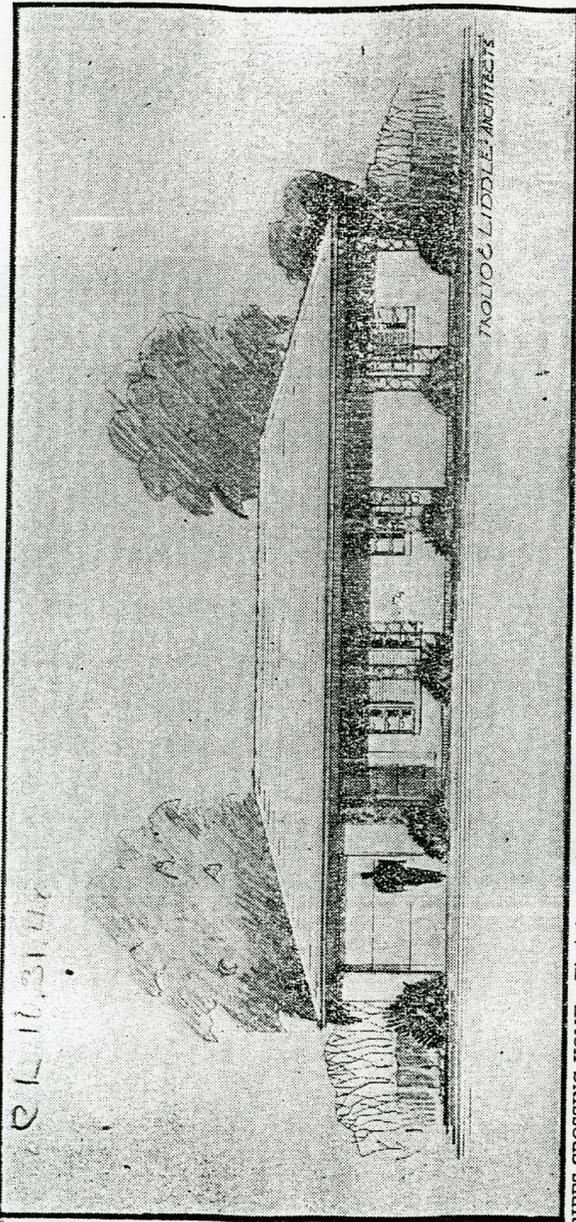

The roof will be peaked wood construction tied by steel to the rest of the house and will be asphalt shingled.

Fixtures for the bath and kitchen will be above standard, with wall tile in the bath. In the kitchen the automatic hot water tank will drop from the ceiling and attic, and underneath will be space for the washing machine.

Ample closet space, refrigerator space and stove space with double sink in front of the kitchen window along with work space, will be incorporated.

Heating will be by two large radiant wall heaters in the hallway and the living room, with a wall space heater in the bath.

11. See blocks 8B, A4, and F2.

12. Clinton, Richland, Pearl, Flowood, and Ridgeland. The presence of these suburbs help show that since the 1940s, people have begun to have an increased desire to live outside the city in more suburban areas. This usually allows them to own larger, more modern homes with larger outdoor spaces. Oftentimes it is cheaper for people to live in the suburbs than the city or to obtain better schooling for their children. Since more people live in the suburbs a growth of schools, shops, parks, and entertainment venues are built to accommodate them. An increase in roadways and other forms of public transportation are built to allow people to commute into the city (or from suburb to suburb as they grow).
