

12/18/03

Statement from Governor Ronnie Musgrove regarding Department of Justice

“The Department of Human Services has been working hard with the Attorney General and the Department of Justice to improve conditions at Oakley and Columbia training schools. I want to thank Attorney General Mike Moore for his dedication to these efforts. Instead of filing a lawsuit, I am urging the Department of Justice to cooperate with the Attorney General. Our resources should be focused on taking care of our children.”