

Draft text for “Stars over Mississippi” ad:

We Welcome the Stars to Mississippi;
They Can Meet a Few of Our Own.

Mississippi’s greatest resource is found in the potential of its children, and our commitment to fulfilling that potential has never been stronger. Teacher pay is moving up. Test scores are up. The Internet is coming to every classroom, with the help of computers built by students statewide. From that first step into the classroom to the step on the graduation stage, our stars are shining brighter than ever before.
