

President's Education Bill signed:

Education has always been my top priority. The future of Mississippi depends on quality education at all levels. I am glad to see the President recognizes the importance of education.

As one of two governors on the National Assessment Governing Board, I am happy to see that this bill expands the national assessment of educational progress.