

Statement re: Tuck (from Lee Ann / John)

This is a question you should ask the people who elected her. Now's not a time to focus on partisan politics. There are too many other important issues facing this state such as fully funding education, creating quality jobs, ensuring access to good health care and focusing on public safety.

Governor Musgrove's first responsibility is to the people of Mississippi.