

Comment from Governor Ronnie Musgrove regarding lease sale 181:

“I am pleased that an agreement regarding offshore drilling has been reached. With energy demands growing, it is important that we balance our need for oil and natural gas with the fragile environment of the Gulf of Mexico. I support the exploration, development and production of oil and natural gas in the gulf, as long as it is done with oversight of the coastal states and the Department of the Interior.”