

On June 5th, Governor Musgrove authorized the closing of all state offices at “the discretion of the respective agency heads...” It was at the discretion of Chancellor Khayat to operate the University on July 3.