

Media Advisory
September 26, 2002

Contact: John Sewell
601-359-2916

Jackson, MS – Governor Ronnie Musgrove is moving the state capital from Jackson to Macon on Tuesday, October 8, as part of his “Capital for a Day” program. State agencies will move their operations out of Jackson for the day and into the gymnasium at Noxubee County High School from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. The school is located at 16478 Highway 45 in Macon.

The public is invited to meet with representatives of state agencies throughout the day, and a public reception with Governor Musgrove will be held at the gymnasium beginning at 4:00 p.m.