

June 1, 2000

MEMORANDUM

To: Corporate American Express Card Holders

From: Ashley Turnipseed

Re: May 25, 2000 Billing

I apologize for the appearance of your American Express billing this month. American Express originally set up our account to contain all billings on one single bill. The new cards you received have been issued so that each of you will have separate billings in the future.