Dear Mr. Staley,

I am writing to tell you that I enjoyed talking with you during your visit to Mississippi. It was very unfortunate that the reason for your visit was to console family and friends after the passing of your sister-in-law. Again, please allow me to extend my deepest sympathies.

I hope our next meeting will be under happier circumstances that will enable us to become better acquainted. I have enclosed a booklet that I hope you will enjoy. It will serve as an informal introduction to a number of family friends that you may encounter on your next visit to our great State.

I hope you enjoy the book and if I may be of assistance, please do not hesitate to call on me.

Very truly yours,

RONNIE MUSGROVE
