Governor Musgrove Appoints Mike Horan to Task Force on Local Government Information Systems

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Mike Horan of Purvis to the Task Force on Local Government Information Systems. He will serve his term at the discretion of the Governor.

“Mike Horan has over 20 years of experience in the field of law,” said Musgrove. “He has been an active participant in his field and the Task Force on Local Government Information Systems will definitely benefit from his knowledge and experience.”

Horan currently is an Assistant District Attorney for the 12th Circuit Court District. He graduated from law school in 1981 and went into private practice until 1988, when he joined the 17th Circuit Court District as an Assistant District Attorney. In 2000, he again went into private practice in Hattiesburg, as a criminal defense attorney. Horan is also a former member of the Board of Directors for the Mississippi Prosecutor’s Association.
