

“When a person owns their own home, their quality of life improves,” said Governor Musgrove. “Homeownership brings with it a sense of self pride along with the joy of ‘belonging’ to a community. The Mortgage Revenue Bond program will help many Mississippi families purchase a home, without this option many of these families could not become homeowners.”