

Mississippi is leading the nation twice in one week. Wednesday, the Governor will sign the education bills putting schools first - an initiative he introduced during his State of the State January 9. Thursday, students and education leaders from around the state will celebrate the Governor's goal of putting an internet-accessible computer in every Mississippi classroom.

Quentin is simply a political operative playing politics.

Lee Ann Mayo