

“We are working hard everyday to bring new jobs to the people of Mississippi. Over 2 million jobs have been lost across the country as a result of the National Recession and NAFTA. Mississippi has been especially hard hit. By putting our schools first, during tough economic times we will be better prepared for the future.”