

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Tuesday, July 10, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Gov. offers 2 options for session

Saints decide to stay put

1st Nissan maintenance technicians in training; job right on time for some

USM president's support of athletics lacking, critics say

Tax info free, IRS reiterates

Members of redistricting committee agree to disagree

Tech leaders stress network

Mooreville's Pitts to serve on Gaming Commission

Editorials

Legislature: Governor's session call perplexing

Death penalty: New defense counsel will be pivotal

Presley: Sheriff's death blow to community

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

First hourly workers training in Tennessee

Musgrove to legislators: Act now on teacher pay

Teachers urge special-session raise

Redistricting draws debate

Saints stay - for now

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Tuck, Ford want special session date changed

Lawmakers look for common interest in redrawing congressional districts

Saints set to stay in New Orleans

BOBBY HARRISON: Musgrove won the battle of the 5 percent trigger

DANNY McKENZIE: Oh, the collegiality of Mississippi politics

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

Legislative leaders oppose timing of special session

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

County legislators support session's purpose, question timing

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Lawmaker: Single issue session 'wasteful'

• Summer heat too hot for Tuck — Bynum

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Governor: We must act now

Special session call a political power play

Despite what Gov. Ronnie Musgrove says, we wonder if his hastily called legislative session really is all about the teachers. Read Our View

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Legislature to rescind provision

Governor appoints director to Office of Capital Defense Counsel

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Special session change sought

stateline.org

Mississippi Gov Seeks Action On Teacher Pay

Mississippi Redistricting Plan Draws Fire

Mississippi Teachers Lobby For Pay Raise

Mississippi's Food Code Changes Mean Cleaner Dining

Press Register, Clarksdale

Future of crop dusters could be decided soon Full Story ▶

The Bolivar Commercial, Cleveland

The Greenwood Commonwealth, Greenwood

Musgrove asked to change date of special session Full Story ▶

Governor calls special session Full Story ▶

USM groups show support for president Full Story ▶

Hinds County lawyer appointed to head state capital defense office Full Story ▶

Corps says dredging will remove DDT Full Story ▶