HISTORIC PROPERTIES DIVISION
WINTERVILLE MOUNDS
GREENVILLE, MS

STARTING ANNUAL SALARY PLUS BENEFITS: $29,500
DEADLINE FOR RECEIVING APPLICATIONS: May 9, 2014

The Mississippi Department of Archives and History (MDAH), Division of Historic Properties, seeks applications for the position of Historic Resources Specialist I at Winterville Mounds, a National Historic Landmark archaeological site near Greenville, Mississippi. Winterville functioned as a ceremonial mound center from around A.D. 1000 until c. 1550. The incumbent in this position will serve as the historian and educator at the site.

Job responsibilities will include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Develop educational programs (including the CORE curriculum) with the branch director, the staff archaeologist, and other MDAH personnel, for both school and adult groups.
- Work with the branch director and the staff to develop and administer public on-site events such as special-event programs, workshops, and lectures.
- Coordinate with the branch director and site secretary all public relations and media notifications.
- Research the prehistory and history of the site.
- Assist with the identification of artifacts, records and other documentation relating to the history of the site.
- Give offsite programs to community organizations and schools.
- Manage the site Facebook page.

Education and experience must meet one of the following criteria:

- Bachelor's Degree from an accredited four-year college or university in history, education, or another academic field acceptable to the employing authority.

MDAH is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
