

PUBLIC NOTICE:
UNDER CONSIDERATION
FOR MISSISSIPPI LANDMARK DESIGNATION

Booker T. Washington School, located in Philadelphia, Neshoba County, is currently under consideration for designation as a Mississippi Landmark in compliance with the provisions of the Antiquities Law of Mississippi, Section 39-7-3 et seq. of the Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended.

The Antiquities Law provides that publicly-owned properties found to have significance may be designated Mississippi Landmarks by the Board of Trustees of the Mississippi Department of Archives and History. Designation recognizes the historical and/or architectural significance of the property and requires that proposed alterations that may affect the property's historic character be reviewed and approved by the Mississippi Department of Archives and History.

The Board of Trustees of the Mississippi Department of Archives and History invites public comment on the proposed designation of Booker T. Washington School, as a Mississippi Landmark. Comments and requests for more information should be sent to Katherine Anderson, Mississippi Landmarks and Tax Incentives Coordinator, Historic Preservation Division, Mississippi Department of Archives and History, P. O. Box 571, Jackson, MS 39205 or kanderson@mdah.ms.gov, within thirty (30) days from the date of this publication.
