

PUBLIC NOTICE:
UNDER CONSIDERATION
FOR MISSISSIPPI LANDMARK DESIGNATION

The following buildings, located on the campus of Mississippi State University, Starkville, Oktibbeha County, are currently under consideration for designation as Mississippi Landmarks in compliance with the provisions of the Antiquities Law of Mississippi, Section 39-7-11 of the Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended.

Ballev Animal Science Building

Hill Poultry Science Building

Howell Engineering Building [Agricultural Engineering Building II]

The Antiquities Law provides that publicly owned properties found to have significance may be designated Mississippi Landmarks by the Board of Trustees of the Mississippi Department of Archives and History. Designation recognizes the historical and/or architectural significance of the property and requires that proposed alterations that may affect the property's historic character be reviewed and approved by the Mississippi Department of Archives and History.

The Board of Trustees of the Mississippi Department of Archives and History invites public comment on the proposed designation of the aforementioned buildings as Mississippi Landmarks. Comments and requests for more information should be sent to Clay Mapp, Mississippi Landmarks Coordinator, Historic Preservation Division, Mississippi Department of Archives and History, P. O. Box 571, Jackson, MS 39205 or mslandmark@mdah.ms.gov, within thirty (30) days of the date of this publication.
