

A LECTURE SERIES OF THE MISSISSIPPI
DEPARTMENT OF ARCHIVES & HISTORY

OCT-NOV HISTORY IS LUNCH SCHEDULE

October 1—Ellen Ann Fentress and Rita Watts Boone, "Mississippi's Legacy of School Desegregation."

October 8—Sally Wolff-King, "Holly Springs' Influence on William Faulkner's Fiction." Book sales and signing to follow.

October 15—Melody Golding, "Mississippi Voices from Hurricane Katrina." Book sales and signing to follow.

October 22—Jay Wesley and Eddie Johnson, "Life and Traditions of the Mississippi Choctaw." Book sales and signing to follow.

October 29—"The American Revolution Preview and Mississippi's American250 Celebration."

November 5—Michelle Martin, Tammy Mielke and Jasmine Holmes, "Celebrating the Works of Mildred D. Taylor." Book sales and signing to follow.

November 12—Jere Nash, "America's Second Founding: Reconstruction in Mississippi." Book sales and signing to follow.

November 19—Fred Mangrum, Mary Emmons and Georgia Bankhead, "Sixty Years of Headstart."