

A LECTURE SERIES OF THE

MDAH
MISSISSIPPI DEPARTMENT OF ARCHIVES & HISTORY

In-person at the TWO MISSISSIPPI MUSEUMS & Live Streaming on Facebook and YouTube

September-October 2026

September 2 - Kelly Ellis, "Informed Imagination: Hard Research and Poetic Narratives."

September 9 - Ralph Eubanks, "The Mississippi Delta: Rich Soil, Poor Land."

September 16 - David Garraway, Emma To, and Deanne Stephens, "Mississippi, USA: The Fisher People."

September 23 - Chris Danielson, "Lawrence Guyot, the Mississippi Movement, and the Rise and Fall of the Freedom Democrats."

September 30 - Charles Payne, "This Transformation of People: Notes on Bob Moses, Mississippi and Organizing."

October 7 - Gautham Rao, "A History of Policing American Slavery."

October 14 - Andrew Whitaker, "Mississippi in Liberia."

October 21 - Sherita Johnson, Cheryl Jenkins, Loren Coleman, Rebecca Tuuri, and moderated by Michael Morris; "The Clyde Kennard Case and Higher Education."

October 28 - Ashley Norwood, Hilliard Lackey, Angela Stewart, Robby Luckett, and Gilya Porter; "The First Century at Jackson State University."

